In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to Thomas Ridgway Bridson, of Great Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Bleacher, and William Latham, late of Little Bolton, in the said county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, since deceased, for their invention of certain improvements in machinery or apparatus for stretching, drying, and finishing woven fabrics, bearing date at Westminster, the 26th day of May 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching Letters Patent for inventions," and of other statutes in such case made and provided, Thomas Ridgway Bridson, of Great Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Bleacher, one of the above named pateatees, and to whom the above named William Latham assigned all his share and interest in the said Letters Patent, and John Mangnall, of Suarples, in the county of Lancaster, Paper Manufacturer, assignee of the said Letters Patent, under and by virtue of an assignment thereof, made by the said Thomas Ridgway Bridson, to the said John Mangnall, together with one

Benjamin Hick, now deceased, and one Edmund Burdekin, upon certain trusts since satisfied, do intend to petition Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant to the said Thomas Ridgway Bridson, and the said John Mangnall, or one of them, a prolongation for the further period of fourteen years, or such other period not exceeding fourteen years, as Her Majesty shall please, of the said term of sole using and vending the said invention, granted in the said Letters Patent to the said Thomas Ridgway Bridson and William Latham, and notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made on the twenty-second day of December 1851, to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition, and all persons desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said twenty-second day of December 1851.

William Pendlebury, Solicitor to the said Thomas Ridgway Bridson and John Mangnall.

In the Matter of certain Letters Patent, granted to Joseph Jepson Oddy Taylor, of Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, Machinist, bearing date, and sealed at Westminster, the 1st day of May 1838, for "An improved mode of propelling Ships and other Vessels on Water."

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the 4th, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;" and of another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of King William the 4th, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;'" and of another Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her said present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdiction and powers,'" a petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council by and on behalf of the said Joseph Jepson Oddy Taylor, now of No. 50, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, Machinist, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said letters patent; and notice is hereby given, that an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on the 24th day of December next, or on the then next day of sitting of the said Committee, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 24th day of December next.

J. J. Hubbard, 18, Bucklersbury, London, Solicitor and Agent for the said Petition.

Kingston and Sheetbridge Roads.

Continuation of Term and further Powers.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for better and more effectually improving and keeping in repair the road leading from the town of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the county of Surrey, to a place called Sheetbridge, near Petersfield, in the county of Southampton," and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, and to continue and extend any further term which may have been granted by subsequent Acts of Parliament in extension of the original term with reference to the said roads, or to repeal the said Act, and enact further and other provisions with reference to the repair and maintenance of the said roads; and powers will be applied for in the said Bill, to levy the same or new tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges; and provisions will be made in the said Bill for paying off, compounding, and making other arrangements with respect to mortgages, debts, and charges on the said roads and tolls; and to apportion the existing mortgage debt between the two districts of roads denominated in the said Act as the Upper District and Lower District, and to transfer a portion of the roads now comprised in the lower district to the upper district, and to make alterations and arrangements as to the annual sums directed by the said Act to be paid by the trustees of the upper district to the trustees of the lower district, or to extinguish the same.

Dated this 1st day of November 1851.

And for the purpose of forming approaches to the said park, to empower the said Commissioners to purchase, take, and use all those several pieces or parcels of land, with the houses, buildings, and other erections thereon, situate in the parishes aforesaid, or some of them, and containing in the whole 50 acres or thereabouts, that is to say: firstly, to form the western approach to the said park from, or from near Manor-place, in the Holloway-road, to Highbury-vale-road, passing from, through, or into lands belonging or reputed to belong to Miss Sebbon, James Peachey, Esq. Henry Wilson, Esq. the Earl of Effingham, and others, trustees of Highbury College; Miss Horton, A. C. Wilkinson, Esq. John Venn, Esq. Richard Percival, Esq. and the executors of Aaron Chapman, deceased, all in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, aforesaid; and, secondly, to form the eastern approach to the said park from High-street, Dalston, to King Henry's-walk or street, at the junction of the said walk or street with the new road lately formed and leading to Stoke Newington-green, passing from, through, or into lands belonging or reputed to belong to J. R. D. Tyssen, Esq. and Lady Mildmay, thence along and including the said new road and south side of Newington-green, all in the parishes of St. Mary, Islington, and the district of West Hackney, in the parish of St. John, Hackney, aforesaid, or one of them.

Also to empower the said Commissioners to alter, widen, and improve St. Paul's-road, from the junction of the said road with the Highbury-place-road to the Highbury-grove-road aforesaid.

Also to empower the said Commissioners to stop up and divert a portion of the public highway or road known as the Green Lanes-road aforesaid, from the junction of the said road with the Seven Sisters-road to the junction of the said Green Lanes-road with Paradise-row, Stoke Newington aforesaid.

Also to empower the said Commissioners to build a bridge across the East and West India Docks and Birmingham Junction Railway aforesaid, near Northampton-park aforesaid, and to alter, widen, and improve the two bridges which cross the said railway at or near Highbury-grove and the Newington-green-roads respectively, and to stop up and divert portions of the New River, and to fill up a portion of one of the reservoirs thereof, or form a viaduct over the same.

Also to empower the said Commissioners to alter the levels of any existing streets, roads, bridges, ways, paths, or passages, and to cross, divert, widen, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, all streets, roads, bridges, ways, paths, passages, sewers, drains, streams, or pipes, which now lead or run into, upon, through, across, or over any part or parts of the before-mentioned lands and hereditaments intended to be acquired by the said Commissioners under the authority of the said intended Act, and to set out and make other streets, roads, bridges, ways, paths, passages, sewers, drains, streams, or pipes, in, upon, or over the said lands and hereditaments, and for the purposes of the said intended Act to incorporate the said Commissioners, and to empower them to take and hold, sell, exchange, and let any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to be acquired by them under the authority of or for the purposes of the said intended Act, and to inclose, plant, drain, and lay out the said park.

And notice is hereby further given, that power will be contained in the said intended Act to make lateral deviations in the formation of the said park, and in the construction and diversion of the said approaches, roads, bridges, and works, from the line or situation thereof, as shown in the plans hereinafter referred to, to the extent to be defined upon the said plans.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line and situation of the said intended park, approaches, roads, and works, and the lands in, through, or upon which the same are intended to be made, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and houses, in or through which the same will pass or be made, or which will be required to be taken for the purposes thereof; and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 29th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex; and that on or before the said 29th day of November instant, copies of the said plan and book of reference, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes of St. Mary, Islington, Hornsey, St. Mary, Stoke Newington, and St. John's, Hackney, respectively, at their respective places of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act for the compulsory purchase of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected therewith, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

Dated this 5th day of November 1851.

By order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

John Gardiner, 20, Whitehall-place, Westminster.

Essex Turnpike Roads.

Consolidation of Trusts.—Transfer of portion of Road in Middlesex to Commissioners of Metropolis Turnpike Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal the several Acts of Parliament, following; that is to say:

An Act, passed in the 10th year of the reign of King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing, widening, and improving the road from Harlow Bush-common, in the parish of Harlow, in the county of Essex, to Stump-cross, in the parish of Great Chesterford, in the same county, and for making and maintaining two new lines of road communicating therewith;" also an Act, passed in the 6th year of the reign of King William the 4th, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the roads from Harlow Bush-common to and into the parish of Woodford, and the road from Epping to Writtle, and other roads therein mentioned, all in the county of Essex;" also an Act, passed in the 33rd year of the reign of King George the 3rd, intituled "An Act for repairing the roads leading from the western part of the parish of Shenfield to Harwich and Rochford, and from Chelmsford to Ballingdon-bridge, and from Margaretting to Malden, and from Colchester to Dedham-bridge, and from Lexden to the east end of the town of Baverill, and from High Garrett to Bulmer Tie, and from Mark's Tey to Braintree, and from Little Waltham to the end of the parish of Great Hallingbury, and from Malden to Braintree, in the county of Essex;" also an Act, passed in the 55th year of the reign of King George the 3rd, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending an Act of His present Majesty for repairing several roads leading from Shenfield to Harwich and Rochford, and other places in the county of Essex, and for extending the said Act to the road from Great Hallingbury to Hockerill, in the county of Hertford." Also an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads leading from Whitechapel Church, in the county of Middlesex, unto Passingford-bridge, and through and to the end of the several parishes or places of Shenfield and Woodford, in the county of Essex, and for other purposes relating thereto;" also an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King William the 4th, intituled "An Act to continue, alter, and amend an Act of the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for more effectually repairing and improving the Middlesex and Essex turnpike-roads, to provide for the rebuilding of Bow-bridge, in the counties of Middlesex and Essex, the improving of the several other bridges upon the said roads, and for other purposes relating thereto."

And it is intended by the said Bill to vest the turnpike-road leading from the Obelisk at the Stones End, by Whitechapel Church, in the county of Middlesex, towards Bow-bridge, and terminating at a point in the same county at a distance of one hundred yards from the west end of Bow-bridge aforesaid (being part of the roads comprised in the two last-mentioned Acts), in the Commissioners of the metropolis turnpike-roads north of the Thames, to be managed, repaired, and maintained by them, and to enable the said Commissioners to levy tolls thereon, and to alter the tolls now payable thereon.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to vest all the remainder of the roads comprised in the six Acts before mentioned, and the management, repair, maintenance, and improvement thereof in a body of Commissioners, to be appointed under the provisions of the said Bill, for a term of years to be specified in the said Bill; and also to vest in the Commissioners so to be appointed all tolls, and arrears of toll, and other monies, and all lands, houses, chattles, and effects, debts, choses in action, and other property of the trustees acting under the said Acts respectively, and to subject the Commissioners so to be appointed to the debts and liabilities of the same trustees respectively; and also to enable such Commissioners to levy the existing or new tolls on the said roads, or some parts thereof, or to alter the existing tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, and to confer upon such Commissioners powers to sue and be sued, and all other necessary powers, and to restrict mortgagees of the tolls arising on the said roads from taking or retaining possession of toll-gates, except for non-payment of interest.

And by the said Bill it is intended to empower the Commissioners, upon application from parish vestries, to adopt any highway, or portion of a highway, in the county of Essex, as a turnpike-road, and to levy tolls thereon.

And it is also intended (so far as may be necessary for the purpose last mentioned) to alter the highway rates levied in any such parish.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to provide for the continuance of the compositions now payable in respect of the repairs of Bow-bridge, Channelsea-bridge, Pegshole Carriage-bridge, Sir Thomas D'Acre's-bridge, St. Michael's Carriage-bridge, and the foot-bridge adjoining thereto.

And it is also intended by the said Bill (so far as may be necessary for the purposes thereof), to alter and amend the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Commissioners of the metropolis turnpike-roads, north of the Thames, or some of them (that is to say): local and personal Acts, 7 George 4, cap. 142; 10 George 4, cap. 59; 12 and 13 Victoria, cap. 66; 13 and 14 Victoria, cap. 32 and cap. 103.

Dated this 1st day of November 1851.

Aldermaston and Basingstoke Turnpike Roads.
First and Second Districts.
(Continuation of Term. Repeal or Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening several roads from Aldermaston, in the county of Berks, to Basingstoke, and from Aldermaston aforesaid to the turnpike-road from Basingstoke to Andover, at or near Worting, and to the turnpike-road leading to Winchester, at Popham-lane, in the county of Southampton;" and of two other Acts relating to the same roads (that is to say), 34 George 3rd, cap. 141, and the local and personal Act, 56 George 3rd, cap. 47, and to continue and extend the term created and extended by the said Acts respectively, or any further term which may have been granted by subsequent Acts of Parliament in extension thereof; or to repeal the said Acts, and enact other provisions in lieu thereof. And powers will be applied for in the said Bill, to continue or alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties now authorised to be taken on the said roads, or some of them, and to levy new tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, or duties; to consolidate into one district the two districts referred to in the said Acts, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges. And provision will also be made in the said Bill for paying off, compounding, and making other arrangements with respect to mortgages, debts, and charges on the said roads or tolls, and to vary or extinguish some of the rights and remedies of the creditors thereon.

(For promoting Education in the Borough of Salford, and in the contiguous Townships of Pendleton, Pendlebury, and Broughton, or some of them.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to promote education in the municipal borough of Salford, and, under certain circumstances, in the contiguous townships of Pendleton, Pendlebury, and Broughton, or some or one of them, in the county of Lancaster; and for such purpose it is proposed to constitute committees out of the town council of the said borough, and, under certain circumstances, out of the guardians of the poor, elected or appointed to represent such respective townships at the board of guardians of the union in which such respective townships are included, and to invest such respective committees with such powers as may be found expedient for carrying the objects of the said intended Act into execution; and to provide additional schools within the said borough and townships respectively; and also to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any school now existing or hereafter to be established within the said borough and townships respectively, may be admitted to participate in the benefits of the said intended Act; and to make provision in certain cases for preventing a lapse or failure in the trustees or managing body of any school admitted or proposed to be admitted to the benefits of the said intended Act; and to provide for the free admission of scholars into all or any of the present or future schools within the said borough and townships respectively, and to make regulations connected with the course or system of education to be adopted in such respective schools; and also to provide for the erection, regulation, and management of new schools; and, in certain cases, for the adaptation, repair, maintenance, cleaning, warming, and ventilation of the school rooms now existing or hereafter to be erected within the said borough and townships respectively, or of any room used as a school room; and for selling, letting, or exchanging any of such schools or school rooms; and for providing books, stationery, and other articles and things to be used in and for such schools, and for the payment of the teachers therein, and also to provide for the due inspection of all or any of such schools, or of any other schools within the said borough and townships respectively, by Government or local inspectors, and for the appointment of local inspectors for the purposes to be defined in the said intended Act, and for the payment of fees or salaries to any such inspectors.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to defray the expenses of, and in any way relating to, the said intended Act, and of carrying the same into execution out of or by means of the poor rates from time to time assessed and levied within the said borough and townships respectively, or by means of a separate rate or separate rates to be levied on the property within such borough and townships respectively for the time being liable to be assessed to the poor rate, and to make all such other provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying the objects and purposes of the said intended Act into execution.—Dated this seventh day of November 1851.

The Newcastle and Eccleshall District of Turnpike Roads.

Continuance of Term.—Repeal or Alteration and Amendment of Acts.—Powers to levy new Tolls and to alter existing Tolls.—Altering Application of Tolls and Rights of Creditors, and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing and improving divers roads in the counties of Stafford and Salop, comprised in three districts, called The Eccleshall, Newport, and Watling-street District, The Newcastle and Eccleshall District, and The Hilton and Honnington District," as far as such Act relates to the roads comprised in and called "The Newcastle and Eccleshall District," and to create a further term in or with reference to such roads, or to repeal the said Act so far as the same relates to the said roads comprised in the said district, and to grant further, better, and more effectual powers in lieu thereof, and also to extend the existing and grant a further term in the said roads.

And in the said Bill powers will be applied for to alter the tolls now taken or authorised to be taken upon the said Newcastle and Eccleshall district of roads, or any part thereof, or to levy the same tolls or other tolls in lieu thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and to alter and regulate the application and expenditure of the money arising from such tolls, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions.

And notice is hereby given, that there may also be inserted in the said Bill, clauses and provisions with reference to the payment of the interest and principal of the mortgage debts, due and owing upon the credit of the tolls collected upon the said Newcastle and Eccleshall district of roads, and for altering the rate of interest now payable, and for fixing the rate of interest to be hereafter paid in respect of such debts, or the proportion of the tolls to be applied in payment of interest and principal, and for making other arrangements with respect to the existing mortgage debts, and with respect to the liquidation or relinquishment of any arrears of interest thereon, and of other charges and liabilities upon the said roads.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to repeal, alter, or amend, such part or parts as shall be necessary of an Act passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better amending and repairing the road leading from a certain stone which divides the liberties of Ranton and Ellenhall, in the county of Stafford, through Sutton, to the Whitchurch turnpike-road, near Newport, in the county of Salop, and several other roads in the counties of Salop and Stafford," and to grant further, better, and more effectual powers instead thereof, so far as relates to the said Newcastle and Eccleshall district of roads.

Bradford Piece Halls.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to authorise such improvements, additions, and alterations to be made in or to certain premises situate at Bradford, in the West Riding of the county of York, and called or known by the name of the Bradford Piece Halls, whether by enlarging, consolidating, or re-constructing all or any of the stands, closets, or stalls in the said halls, or otherwise, and also such improvements or alterations in the mode of transacting business in such halls, as shall be approved of by a majority of the owners, or persons for the time being possessed of such stands, closets, or stalls, and to declare the ownership or possession of such stands, closets, or stalls, to be personal estate.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the letting from time to time of the said stands, closets, or stalls, or any of them, or of any warehouse or other tenement or convenience, being part or parcel of the said halls, or of the premises belonging thereto, to any person or persons whomsoever.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorise the sale of the said halls, together with the sites thereof, or any part of the same respectively, and all stands, closets, and stalls in the said halls, and the yards, plots of land, dwelling-houses, outbuildings and other appurtenances to the said halls belonging or appertaining, or any part thereof respectively, freed and discharged from the trusts and purposes upon or for which the same, or any of them are now held, at such time and in such manner as shall be approved of by a majority of the owners, or persons possessed of the said stands, closets, and stalls for the time being.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to provide for the application or division of the rents and purchase monies to be derived from the said premises, or any part thereof, amongst the owners, or persons for the time being possessed of the said stands, closets, or stalls, and to incorporate a Company with powers to sue and be sued, and to vary or extinguish all such existing rights and privileges, whether of proprietors, owners, or persons possessed of the said stands, closets, or stalls, or otherwise, as would in any manner impede or interfere with the carrying into full effect all or any of the objects of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Droitwich Junction Canal.

(Incorporation of Company, Construction of Canal to connect the Droitwich Canal with the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, at Hanbury, with powers to take water from the latter, to lease or sell the Undertaking, and to levy tolls).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of, and with all requisite powers for, making and maintaining a cut or canal, commencing at and by a junction with the Droitwich Canal, at a point situate about fifty yards from its head, in that part of the parish of Dodderhill, called the "In Liberties," lying within the borough of Droitwich, in the county of Worcester; and passing thence from, through, in, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them; that is to say: Droitwich, Saint Peter Droitwich, that part of Dodderhill which lies within the borough of Droitwich, called the "In Liberties," Dodderhill without the said borough, Hadsor and Hanbury, all in the county of Worcester, and terminating by a junction with the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation at a point about seventy yards on the northern side of Hanbury Wharf Bridge, in the parish of Hanbury, in the said county of Worcester, together with all proper and necessary quays, locks, wharfs, landing and shipping places, warehouses, and other works and conveniences connected therewith.

And it is intended by the said Act to apply for powers to cross and to divert, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, all such streets, lanes, passages, footpaths, highways, turnpike and other roads, canals, navigations, streams, sewers, pipes, waters and watercourses within the parishes, townships, and places aforesaid as it may be necessary or expedient to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, for the purpose of constructing or maintaining the said proposed cut or canal, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, or any of them.

And powers will also be taken in the said Act to deviate in the construction of the said proposed cut or canal, on either side of the line thereof, as laid down on the plans hereinafter referred to, as intended to be deposited, to such an extent as will be shown or defined on such plans.

And powers will also be taken therein for taking a supply of water from the said Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation, for the purposes of the said intended cut or canal, by diverting such water directly into the same, at its proposed junction with the said Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation, in the parish of Hanbury aforesaid, and through the proposed cut or canal into the said Droitwich Canal; and to enable the Company to be thereby incorporated, the Company of Proprietors of the Droitwich Canal Navigation, and the Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation respectively, to enter into arrangements with reference to the remuneration to be made for such supply of water; and for that purpose to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Droitwich Canal Navigation to vary their existing tolls, rates, and duties, or to grant exemptions therefrom.

And it is further intended by the said Act to take powers for the compulsory purchase of all lands, houses, and other hereditaments, which may be required for the purpose of the said intended cut or canal, and other works; and to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands and hereditaments proposed to be purchased or taken for the same, and also all the rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended cut or canal, and works; and to confer other rights or privileges, and to take powers for levying tolls, rates, or duties in respect of such use, and to confer exemptions from the payment thereof, or modifications thereof.

And so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the said Act, it is also intended to amend or repeal the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions, of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal from the River Severn, at or near a place called Hawford, in the parish of Claines, in the county of Worcester, to or near a place called Chapel Bridge, within the borough of Droitwich, in the said county," and of the several Acts of Parliament following, relating to the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation (that is to say); 31st George III, cap. 59 (Local and Personal Acts) 38th George III, cap. 31; 44th George III, cap. 35; 48th George III, cap. 49; 55th George III, cap. 66; or some of them.

And it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act enabling the Company to be thereby incorporated, to let on lease, sell, or transfer the said intended cut or canal to the said Company of Proprietors of the Droitwich Canal Navigation, and the said Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation, or either of them, and to delegate to any such Companies or Company the execution of all or any of the powers of the said intended Act, and to enable the said Company of Proprietors of the Droitwich Canal Navigation and the said Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation, or either of the said Companies, to rent or purchase the said intended cut or canal and to raise any sum of money for such last mentioned purposes, or any of them.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in the said Act enabling the Company to be thereby incorporated, the said Company of Proprietors of the Droitwich Canal Navigation, and the said Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation, or either of the said Companies, to enter into and conclude arrangements with regard to traffic and to tolls, rates, duties, and other profits, and the appropriation and distribution thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the twenty-ninth day of November next, duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed canal and other works, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the same, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Worcester, at his office, at Worcester, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the proposed works are intended to be made or maintained, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, and in the case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his place of abode.
