Hutchinson's Claim.

The Rajah and Government of Travancore Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for providing for the discharge of a debt due from the Rajah and Government of Travancore to the representative of the late John Hutchinson, Esquire, who filled the office of Commercial Resident at Anjengo, within the territories of the Rajah of Travancore, in the East Indies, from the year 1782 to the year 1797. And by the said Bill it is intended to enact that the representative of the said John Hutchinson has an equitable claim on the East India Company, and their successors, whether existing under their present Charter or under any renewed or modified Charter, to be replaced by them in the same situation, with regard to a debt claimed to be due from the Rajah and Government of Travancore to the estate of the said John Hutchinson, deceased, as he would have been if the Government of the said East India Company had not interfered, and that the Court of Directors of the said East India Company shall be thereby required forthwith to advise the present Rajah and Government of Travancore to pay and discharge to the representative of the said John Hutchinson such debt as is or may be justly due to the estate of the said John Hutchinson, in accordance with the terms of an engagement of the Rajah of Travancore, dated the 13th day of March, in the year 1800, and the custom of the country of Travancore, and that if payment and discharge of the said debt shall not be so obtained from the Rajah or Government of Travancore to the representative of the said John Hutchinson, on or before a day to be named in the said Bill, that then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, or the Directors or Governor of the East India Company for the time being (and whether the said Company shall be existing under its present Charter or under any renewed or modified Charter), and they shall be thereby required to pay to the representative for the time being of the said John Hutchinson, deceased, the full amount of the debt which shall appear to be due as aforesaid, in accordance with the terms of the Rajah of Travancore's said engagement of the 13th day of March 1800, and the custom of the country of Travancore, out of the revenues and subsidy received or to be received by the said East India Company from the said Rajah and Government of Travancore; and that in case the said debt shall become payable by the said East India Company as aforesaid, and payment thereof shall, at any time after the same shall have so become payable, be demanded in writing (such writing to be left at the office of the Secretary of the said East India Company), and shall not be actually paid within one calendar month next after the day on which such written demand shall be so left, then and in that case the said debt shall be recoverable by the representative of the said John Hutchinson for the time being, by action of debt against the said East India Company, to be brought in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record, as well in England as in India, in which action the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover, notwithstanding any plea of the sovereignty or political character of the said East India Company, but in such and the same manner as if the said debt was the debt of the said Company, contracted in the course of ordinary commercial dealings, and by the said Bill it is intended to confer, vary, and extinguish certain rights and privileges.

Jon. Weymouth, 2, Temple-chambers, Falcon-court, Fleet-street, Solicitor for the said Bill.
