TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1851.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of December 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Granville George, Earl Granville, to be one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, his Lordship was this day, by Her Majesty's command, sworn one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of December 1851,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace within the southern division of the county of Derby, in quarter sessions assembled, at the County-hall, in Derby, on the fourteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for the said southern division is insufficient, and praying that the town of Repton may be declared a polling place for the said southern division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the first-mentioned Act of Parliament, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct that the said place named in the said petition, namely the town of Repton, shall be a polling place for the southern division of the county of Derby; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said southern division of the said county, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, shall divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the borough of Maidenhead, in the county of Berks, and within the boundaries of that borough, as fixed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales' (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed William Lee, a superintending inspector appointed for the purposes of the
