

and Carcasses into the place, with which they hope to force the Besieged to have recourse to the Emperour's Clemency. The last Letters said, the Rebels had filled a House in the Palanque with earth, and had planted there two pieces of Cannon, which very much incommoded the Besiegers, who were therefore raising a Battery to dismount the said Cannon. Lieutenant General de Mercy, and Major General Hausler, have posted themselves with the Body under their Command near the Teyffe to observe the Turks, who continue encamped between Gyula and Lippa, expecting the Tartars, and the other Troops that are on their march, to join them. The Visier of Buda hath put a great Convoy of Provisions into Agria. A Party of Turks of the Garisons of Szigesb and Canisa, having the last week passed the Rabnitz, and made an Incurision into the Country of Lembach, where they took about 60 persons that were working in the Vineyards, and some Cattle; The Count de Budiani upon notice of it marched with his Heydukes, and having got between the Enemy and home, he broke down the Bridge over the River, and fell upon them as they returned back with their Booty, which he not only recovered, but cut off above 100 of the Turks, and many of the rest, who endeavoured to swim the River, were drowned. We are told that the Elector of Brandenburgh has promised to add to the Forces which by the late Treaty he is obliged to assist the Emperour with this Campagne, 1200 Men at his own charge. The Duke of Lorraine is expected here this week from Inspruck.

Ratisbonne, March 26. The States of the Empire assembled here, have granted the Subsidy of 50 Roman Months, demanded by the Emperour for the War against the Turks; The Colledge of the Imperial Towns, upon whom this Contribution will fall the heaviest, did for some time oppose it, but at last consented, having first obtained, That this Subsidy shall be looked upon as voluntary; That the States of the Empire may give their Quota's in Men or Money, as they shall judge most convenient; And that the assistance they have already given his Imperial Majesty, shall be taken for part of this Contribution. The 23d instant, the Imperial Commissioners communicated to the Dyet two Decrees; By one of which, the Emperour approves the Resolution taken by the States of the Empire concerning the Affairs of the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp, which was sent to his Imperial Majesty the 30th of August last; And by the other, exhorts the States to conclude the Preliminary Points, in order to the beginning the Conference for the settling the Limits between the Empire and the Crown of France, pursuant to the late Treaty of Truce.

Cologne, April 5. The Magistrates of this City have sent Deputies to Duseldorp, to compliment the Electoral Prince Palatin upon his return thither. The Count de Tecklenbourg passed through this place the 3d Instant, in his way to Bonne, where the Count de Hohenloe is expected in few days, to confer with his Electoral Highness concerning the matters which are to be treated of at the Conference that's appointed to be held the next Month at Augsburg.

Bague, April 12. The Commissioners of this State for the Business of Bantam are returned from England, and the 8th instant they made report of their Negotiation in the Assembly of the States General. The Deputies of Zealand are gone home, except the Pensionary Hubert, who intends to follow to morrow. They write from Hamburg, that the differences between the Duke of Zell and that City will be composed.

Paris, April 17. An Envoy is arrived at this Court from the Elector Palatin, to notice the death of the Princess Charlotte of Hesse, Dowager to Charles Louis Elector Palatin, who died at Hydelberg the 26th of the last Month. The Troops of the King's Household are to encamp the next Month in the Plain of Acheres near Versailles; and we are told there will be five Camps more on the Saar, in Flanders, on the Soane, in the Lower Postou, and in Languedoc. The report we had here, that the Troops which marched towards Piedmont were Countermanded, is not confirmed.

His Majesty having been Graciously pleased since September last, to Heal Publickly for the Evil Weekly, and many times ofner, till Easter, in which time He hath Healed several Thousands, the greatest part of which were Inhabitants of London, and Parts adjacent; And considering that the season of the Year for warm Weather approacheth, His Majesty thinks fit to forbid all Publick Healings, after the 21 of this Month, until towards Michaelmas, unless in His Progress, and such as come from Paris remote; And also those of the City of London, and Parts adjacent, who shall be judged by any of His Physicians or Chirurgeons necessarily to requize being sooner Heald by His Majesty: Hereof all Ministers of Parishes, and others concerned, are Required to take Notice.
