FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1852.

Buckingham-Palace, February 3, 1852.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart. C.B. Deputy Great Chamberlain, (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Athmarke, and the crown by the Marquess of Normanby.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esquire, Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE period has arrived when, according to usage, I can again avail myself of your advice and assistance in the preparation and adoption of measures which the welfare of the country may require.

I continue to maintain the most friendly relations with foreign powers.

The complicated affairs of the Duchies of Holstein and Sleswig have continued to engage my attention. I have every reason to expect that the Treaty between Germany and Denmark, which was concluded at Berlin in the year before last, will in a short time be fully and completely executed.

I regret that the war which unfortunately broke out on the eastern frontier of the Cape of Good Hope more than a year ago, still continues. Papers will be laid before you containing full information as to the progress of the war, and the measures which have been taken for bringing it to a termination.

While I have observed with sincere satisfaction the tranquillity which has prevailed throughout the greater portion of Ireland, it is with much regret that I have to inform you, that certain parts of the counties of Armagh, Monaghan, and Louth have been marked by the commission of outrages of the most serious description. The powers of the existing law have been promptly exerted for the detection of the offenders, and for the repression of a system of crime and violence fatal to the best interests of the country. My attention will continue to be directed to this important object.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered estimates of the expenses of the current year to be laid before you.

I rely with confidence on your loyalty and zeal to make adequate provision for the public service.

Where any increase has been made in the estimates of the present over the past year, such explanations will be given as will, I trust, satisfy you that such increase is consistent with a steady adherence to a pacific policy and with the dictates of a wise economy.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The improvement of the administration of justice in its various departments has continued to receive my anxious attention; and in furtherance of that object I have directed bills to be prepared, founded upon the reports made to me by the respective commissions appointed to inquire into the practice and proceedings of the superior courts of law and equity, as nothing tends more to the peace, prosperity, and contentment of a country than the speedy and impartial administration of justice. I earnestly recommend these measures to your deliberate attention.

The Act of 1848 for suspending the operation of a previous Act conferring representative institutions on New Zealand will expire early in the next year. I am happy to believe that there is no necessity for its renewal, and that no obstacle any longer exists to the enjoyment of representative institutions by New Zealand. The form of these institutions will, however, require your consideration; and the additional information which has been obtained since the passing of the Acts in question will, I trust, enable you to arrive at a decision beneficial to that important colony.

It gives me great satisfaction to be able to state to you, that the large reductions of taxes which have taken place of late years have not been attended with a proportionate diminution of the national income. The revenue of the past year has been fully adequate to the demands of the public service, while the reduction of taxation has tended greatly to the relief and comfort of my subjects.

I acknowledge, with thankfulness to Almighty God, that tranquillity, good order, and willing obedience to the laws, continue to prevail generally throughout the country.

It appears to me that this is a fitting time for calmly considering whether it may not be advisable to make such amendments in the Act of the late reign, relating to the representation of the Commons in Parliament, as may be deemed calculated to carry into more complete effect the principles upon which that law is founded.

I have the fullest confidence, that in any such consideration you will firmly adhere to the acknowledged principles of the constitution, by which the prerogatives of the crown, the authority of both Houses of Parliament, and the rights and liberties of the people, are equally secured.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2nd day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the episcopal income of the Bishop of Salisbury.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, hath, with a view to the regulation of his episcopal income according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Agreement made this eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, of the other part.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a Commission to certain persons therein named to inquire (amongst other things) whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient, that until the said Commissioners should have made their report, and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose, it was enacted, that notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon, relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes, and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see, upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as hereinafter mentioned in lieu of his present income as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more; and whereas, under the provisions of the said Act in the said herein recited Act first recited, the amount of the annual income which would be suitable to the circumstances of the see of Salisbury has been fixed at five thousand pounds; and whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, succeeded to his see on an avoidance which happened before the said first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and hath signified his willingness in accordance with the provisions of the said herein recited Act to accept as from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the said annual income or yearly sum of five thousand pounds, and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever, received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him, as from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in manner hereinafter mentioned; now it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and the said Edward, Bishop of Salisbury, as follows; that is to say:

"1. That the said bishop shall forthwith deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in respect of the revenues of his see or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirtieth day of June now last past, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account. And that the said bishop shall henceforth, half yearly, on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, deliver a like account in writing, certified as aforesaid, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account. And in such account to be forthwith delivered, and in every such future half yearly account, shall be included as money actually received by the said bishop, such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or in case of their disagreement, then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the bishop, and the other by the said Commissioners, or in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said bishop, for such parts of the estates of the said see (other than and except the palace belonging to the said see, at Salisbury, with the grounds and premises thereunto belonging), as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said bishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease, or agreement for a lease, to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned), during the preceding half year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation; and if it shall appear by any such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor, or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded two thousand five hundred pounds, being one half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said bishop; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the Treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said bishop, but if it shall appear upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid, for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said bishop, on the first day of May, or the first day of November, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency.

“ 2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said bishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any), hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rent due or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future revenues of the said see, and shall, when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and the said bishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such monies as last-mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said bishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such monies, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all monies so recovered, after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“ 3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as were accruing in respect of the said revenues, profits, or emoluments on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and have been since, or shall be hereafter, received by the said bishop, he, the said bishop, shall be entitled to such apportioned part thereof (if any), as his legal personal representative would have been by law entitled to, in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“ 4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said bishop and the said Commissioners, that all monies which shall be due to the said bishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, subject to such right of apportionment (if any) as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said bishop, or his representatives on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable; and upon such avoidance, an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all monies received or to be accounted for as monies received by him, or them, since the then last half yearly account, and also of all monies then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of five thousand pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see and in that event, then the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England, or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received, and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of five thousand pounds as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

"5. And the said bishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, or the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners, for their approval, a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or of any other nature, kind, or description, to be received, reserved, rendered, or taken for the granting thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, by writing under their common seal, and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine shall in any case exceed one half of the said annual income of five thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

"6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council, and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same when ratified shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

"Witness the common seal of the said Commissioners, and the hand of the said Edward, Bishop of Salisbury.

“(Signed) E. Sarum.”

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order is published in the London Gazette, and in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the said Order, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the episcopal income of the Bishop of Saint Asaph.

“Whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, hath, with a view to the regulation of his episcopal income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“Agreement made this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, of the other part.

“Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a Commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient, that until the said Commissioners should have made their report, and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose, it was enacted, that notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon, relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes, and conditions of payments, to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by the said Archbishop or Bishop who should have succeeded to a see, upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as hereinafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more :

“And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided, that in order to leave to the Bishop of Saint Asaph for the time being the average annual income of four thousand two hundred pounds, there should be paid to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England by the bishop succeeding to such see (which had then recently become vacant), and his successors, the fixed annual sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds by equal half yearly payments in every year :

“And whereas the said Right Reverend Thomas Wowler succeeded to the said see upon such vacancy as aforesaid, and became and now is bishop thereof, and he hath signified his willingness, in accordance with the provisions of the said herein recited Act, to accept, as from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the said annual income or yearly sum of four thousand two hundred pounds, and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or receivable by him under the provisions of the said recited Order in Council, or of any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever, received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him as from the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty one, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“Now it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and the said Thomas Wowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, as follows ; that is to say :

“1. That the said Bishop shall forthwith deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty one, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account. And that the said bishop shall henceforth, half yearly, on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, deliver a like account in writing, certified as aforesaid, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account. And in such account to be forthwith delivered, and in every such future half yearly account, shall be included as money actually received by the said bishop, such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or in case of their disagreement, then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the bishop, and the other by the said Commissioners, or in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said bishop, for such parts of the estates of the said see (other than and except the palace belonging to the said see, at Saint Asaph, with the ground and premises thereunto belonging), as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said bishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease, or agreement for a lease, to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned), during the preceding half year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation ; and if it shall appear by any such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor, or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded two thousand one hundred pounds, being one half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said bishop ; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the Treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said bishop, and shall be a good and valid discharge for all payments or contributions in respect of the said annual sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds, for which the said bishop is liable under the said Order in Council, but if it shall appear upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid, for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said bishop, on the first day of November, or the first day of May, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency.

“2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said bishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any), hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rent due, or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future revenues of the said see, and shall, when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid ; and the said bishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such monies as last-mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said bishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such monies, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all monies so recovered, after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as were accruing in respect of the same revenues, profits, or emoluments, on the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and have been since, or shall be hereafter, received by the said bishop, he, the said bishop, shall be entitled to such apportioned part thereof (if any), as his legal personal representative would have been by law entitled to, in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said bishop and the said Commissioners, that all monies which shall be due to the said bishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which, in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty, subject to such right of apportionment (if any) as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said bishop, or his representatives on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable; and upon such avoidance, an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all monies received or to be accounted for as monies received by him, or them, since the then last half yearly account, and also of all monies then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account that, after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income or sum of four thousand two hundred pounds as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see and in that event, then the said bishop or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England; or if it shall appear, upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received, and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of four thousand two hundred pounds, as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“5. And the said bishop doth further agree that before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, or the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners, for their approval, a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make, such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine or other like consideration (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners in writing, under their common seal. And if it shall appear that the amount of any fine or other like consideration shall in any case exceed one half of the said annual income of four thousand two hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council, and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“In witness whereof, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.

“(Signed) Thomas Vowler St. Asaph.”

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the future deans and canons of the cathedral church of Durham.

"Whereas it is by the first-recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same), such fixed annual sums shall be determined on to be paid, and shall accordingly be paid to us by the dean and canons of the cathedral church of Durham, as after due inquiry, and a calculation of the present average annual revenues of the chapter of such church, shall leave to the said dean an average annual income of three thousand pounds, and to each of the canons of the same church the average annual income of one thousand pounds, but such provision is not to affect any dean or canon in possession at the passing of the same Act:

"And whereas, by the secondly recited Act, it is declared and enacted, that, notwithstanding such last-recited provision, it shall be lawful to carry such purpose into effect by any mode of payment or contribution which may be deemed fit, as well as by the mode in the said first-recited Act specified, and that the scale of payments and receipts may from time to time, in any case, be revised, and, if need be, varied by the like authority, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation:

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, issued under the authority of the said Acts, and duly published in the London Gazette, it is provided, that in order to leave to the dean and canons of Durham respectively, appointed after the passing of the said first-recited Act, the average annual incomes in the said Act specified, there shall be paid to us, in the manner and at the times therein mentioned, and for the purposes of the said recited Acts, five equal seventeenth parts of all moneys at any time accruing and payable to such dean, and one moiety of all moneys at any time accruing and payable to any such canon:

"And whereas, upon further inquiry, it appears to us that the average annual incomes now receivable under the provisions of the said Order by the dean of the said cathedral church of Durham, and by such of the canons of the same church as were appointed after the passing of the said first-recited Act, exceed the amounts therein respectively mentioned, and that it is expedient that the scale of payments and receipts, under the said Order in Council, should be revised and varied, so as to regulate the incomes of future deans and canons in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that with respect to every dean and canon of the said cathedral church of Durham to be hereafter appointed, there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of such church in every year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said church, a correct account in writing, in such form, and verified in such manner, as we shall from time to time direct, shewing the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof shall have become due and payable to such dean or canon, in respect of the deanery, or of any such canonry of the said cathedral church out of the corporate revenues thereof, for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable out of the said corporate revenues shall, in the case of such dean, exceed the sum of three thousand pounds, or in the case of any such canon, the sum of one thousand pounds, then in every such case the amount of the surplus shall, at the same time, be paid by the said treasurer to our credit, at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for all payments for which such treasurer may be liable in respect of such deanery or of any such canonry under the provisions of the said hereinbefore recited Order of Her Majesty in Council; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account, that the amount so due and payable in the case of the dean of the said cathedral church shall be less than the sum of three thousand pounds, or in the case of any canonry, the amount so due and payable shall be less than the sum of one thousand pounds, then in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency, and the receipt of such treasurer shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which any such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the dean and canons of the said cathedral church of Durham, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2nd day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the prebendary of North Newbald, in the cathedral church of York, for certain property belonging to his prebend.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said prebend of North Newbald will (excepting any right of patronage), upon the first avoidance of such prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend William Vernon Harcourt, the present holder of the said prebend of North Newbald, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said William Vernon Harcourt, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except such as are situated within the city of York, and except also any right of patronage), now belonging to the said William Vernon Harcourt, as such prebendary as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid) be, and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said William Vernon Harcourt to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said William Vernon Harcourt the sum of one thousand eight hundred and forty pounds, provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof (except as aforesaid), shall, since the ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, have been or shall be granted or made by the said William Vernon Harcourt.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the
2nd day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the twenty-first section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of North Wingfield, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient that such parish should be divided into two ecclesiastical districts, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the twenty-first section of an Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that one of such ecclesiastical districts should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Bartholomew, situate at Clay Cross, in the said parish of North Wingfield, and should be called 'The District Parish of Clay Cross,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district parish of Clay Cross, which is to consist of and will comprize the several townships of Clay Lane, Stretton, and Woodthorpe (excepting the small portion of the last-mentioned township hereinafter particularly referred to), is bounded on the north by the parish of Wingworth, on the west by the parish of Ashover, on the south by the township of Brackenfield, in the parish of Morton, on the south-east by the parish of Shirland, and on the east, partly by the township of Morton, in the said parish of Morton, and partly by the townships of Pilsley, North Wingfield, and Tupton, all in the said parish of North Wingfield, as such district parish of Clay Cross is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green (excluding however from such district parish all the lands belonging to the said parish of Morton, which are locally situate in the said township of Woodthorpe, at or near a place called Egstow Green, and which lands are left uncoloured on the said map or plan).

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the
2nd day of February 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a report from the General Board of Health, dated the tenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Witham, in the county of Essex (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed Edward Cressy, a superintending inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

"And the said superintending inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

"And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed;

"And it appears by the said report that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said parish, for paving, fighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such parish, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act ;

" Now, therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty, that it appears to us to be expedient ;

" 1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places, comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Witham, in the county of Essex, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purpose of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

" 2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the Public Health Act should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

" 3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the fifth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

" 4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place ; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

" 5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

" 6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend John Bramston, Vicar of Witham aforesaid, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election ; and in case the said John Bramston, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then that Jacob Howell Pattisson, Esquire, Solicitor, of Witham aforesaid, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

" 7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification, required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said John Bramston, at his residence, the Vicarage, situate within the aforesaid district of Witham, or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Jacob

Howell Pattisson, at his residence, likewise within the district aforesaid.

" Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this tenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

T. Southwood Smith."*

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct ;

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Witham, in the county of Essex, and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place ; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend John Bramston, Vicar of Witham aforesaid, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election ; and in case the said John Bramston, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then that Jacob Howell Pattisson, Esquire, Solicitor, of Witham aforesaid, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said John Bramston, at his residence, the Vicarage, situate within the aforesaid district of Witham; or, in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Jacob Howell Pattison, at his residence, likewise within the district aforesaid.
