Vienna, April 4.

WE have Letters by an Exprest from the Camp before Mongatz, of the 26th of the last Month, which give an account, That the Besiegers made their approaches to the lower Town with good success, notwithstanding the continual Fire of the Enemies Cannon: That they had almost drawn the first Ditch dry, and were preparing Fagots and Sacks with earth to fill it, and when that was done, would give an assault to the Palanque, which they must be Masters of before they can attack the Castle; And that they had thrown a great many Bombs into the place, one of which falling in the Room where the Prince's Ragotzi was at Dinner, and setting it on Fire, occasioned a great disorder among the Besieged, but the Fire was put out without doing any great harm. That Teckelej was posted with 5 or 6000 Men near Gyula, expecting a great reinforcement of Turks and Tatars, in order to the relief of Mongatz; That General Caprara, upon advice of it, had sent the Baron Baragotzi with 4000 Hungarians, and half of the Regiments of Schultz and Petrini to attack him there. That General Piccolomini was drawing a considerable Body of Men together, with Orders to go and meet the Tatars, and to secure the Avenues by which they must pass into Hungary. That Lieutenant General de Mercy, and the Count de Caraffa, were posted with the Troops under their Command, the first near Zolnocks, and the other on the side of Zabmar, to observe the Enemy. They write from Lower Hungary, That the Imperialists having notice that a Party of 300 Men was gone from Canisa to make an Incurfion, they laid an Ambush for them, which succeeded so well, that many of the Enemy were killed, and most of the rest taken Prisoners, among which were three Officers of Note. And that the Germans and Hungarians of the Frontier Garrisons having formed a Body of about 4000 Men, they marched the last Week with several pieces of Cannon and Mortars, to attack the Fortresses of Balaton, situated on the side of a Lake between Vesprim and Alba Regalis; of the success of which Enterprize we hope to give you a good account in our next. The Duke of Lorrain is expected here to morrow, and the Elector of Bavaria towards the end of this Month; His Electoral Highnesses Troops, as the last Letters from Munick inform us, were preparing for their march, which they would order so as to be in Hungary by the first of the next Month, the day appointed for the General Rendezvous. The Deputies of Transylvania continue to complain of the great disorders they say the Imperial Troops commit in that Countrey, upon which the Emperor has sent directions to General Caprara, to examine whether there be any ground for these Complaints, and if there be, that better Order be observed for the future. The Count of Dietrichstein, President of the Chamber of the Finances at Graz, parted from hence some days ago, on his return thither, to settle the Fonds for the maintenance of the Forces on that side. The Count de Ziackj, who lately arrived here from Poland, is gone back with a private Commission from the Emperor. The last Week dyed here Count Charles Oxenstern, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sueden.

Zell, April 9. The Baron Horwart is arrived here from the Emperor, and has had Audience of our Duke; His business is, to endeavor a Composure of the Differences between his Highness and the City of Hamburg, and in all appearance he will succeed in it. It is said he has likewise Orders to treat about a Body of Men which the Emperor desires the Duke of Zell will assist him with against the Turks.

Hamburg, April 9. There has hapned a Rencontre between the Minister of the Duke of Zell, and one of the Deputies of this City, at Vienna, which, it's feared, may somewhat alter the good disposition there seems to be at present to an Accommodation. These Magistrates have not yet taken any Resolution upon what was proposed to them by the Baron de Horwart, and the Baron de Goedens, the Imperial Commissioners, about their sending a Deputation to the Duke of Zell, they insisting to have the Troops of that Prince first quit the Territories of this City. In the mean time we are told from Berlin, that these differences do retard the march of the Brandenburg Forces that are to serve this Campaign in Hungary. The Magistrates of this City have, it's said, resolved to contribute in Money their Quota of the Subsidy of 50 Roman Months lately granted the Emperor by the States of the Empire assembled at Ratisbonne for the War against the Turks.

Hamburg, April 12. The Sieur Haxhausen, Envoy from the King of Denmark, arrived here this day, and has, we are told, let these Magistrates know, that the Duke of Zell has given Orders to his Troops to retire out of the Territories of this City, which has very much increased our hopes of a speedy Accommodation. The Lunenburghers demand 800 Ryxdollars of the Inhabitants of Bersdorf, and 200 of the Four Lands.

Cologne, April 13. The Count de Eobentoe, the Emperor's Envoy, having had several Conferences with the Elector of Cologne, and his chief Ministers, upon the present juncture of Affairs, parted from Bonne the 8th Instant for Ausbourg, to assist at the Conference that will be held there the beginning of the next Month. We have an account from Duseldorpe, that the States of Bergs and Fuliers are separated, after having taken Resolutions upon the several Points proposed to them to the satisfaction of the Electoral Prince Palatin, who intends to return very suddenly to Heydelberg, and
