

is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary Magdalene, in Saint Pancras.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted as aforesaid, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, the perpetual curate thereof shall be permanently endowed in the manner following; that is to say, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to such minister or perpetual curate, as the case may be, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of two hundred pounds; and that the first such half-yearly payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such perpetual curate as aforesaid, as the case may be.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the patronage of the said district or new parish, as the case may be, of Saint Mary Magdalene, in Saint Pancras, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, shall, for the first three nominations, be assigned to and shall and may be exercised by the said Edward Stuart, his executors, administrators, and assigns, and that after such first three nominations, the patronage of the said district or new parish, and the right of collation of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, shall be permanently assigned to and vested in the Bishop of London for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint Mary Magdalene, in Saint Pancras, being,—

"All that part of the district of Christ Church, in Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate on the southern side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed), on the eastern boundary of the said district, and opposite to the middle of William-street; and thence proceeding westward along the middle of such street as far as the middle of Albany-street; and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned street to a point (marked b as aforesaid), opposite to the middle of the street or road through Cambridge-place; and thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned street or road, and continuing in the same direction till it meets the western boundary of the said district."

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or under and by virtue of any and every other power and authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Thorpe, which is situate partly in the county of Norfolk and partly in the county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate in the hamlet of Thorpe, in the said parish of Thorpe, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power and authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Thorpe,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: on the south-east and east by the boundary line that divides the hamlet from the parish of Thorpe; on the north-east by the parish of Sprowston; on the north and north-west by the boundary line of the hamlet of Pockthorpe; and on the west and south by the river Wensum, as such district chapelry is more
