AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Staverton, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate at Landscope, in the said parish of Staverton, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Landscope,' with boundaries as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

"The boundary commences at the point marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed, where the boundary between the parish of Staverton and the parish of Broadhempstone is intersected by the road leading from Broadhempstone to Buckfastleigh, thence proceeding north-westerly along the middle of that road to the spot marked B on the said map or plan, where the said road joins the road from Totness to Buckfastleigh and Ashburton, and from that spot the boundary proceeds in a direct line westward to the river Dart, and then proceeds northerly, north-easterly, and southerly, along the boundary line, separating the parishes of Buckfastleigh, Ashburton, Woodland, and Broadhempstone, from the parish of Staverton, to the said point marked A, as such district chapelry of Landscope is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Matthew, at Landscope aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, has been obtained thereto as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
