AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of April 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts;" and of the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that the several parishes of Hughenden and Great Missenden, and an isolated portion of the parish of Stoke Mandeville, situated respectively in the county of Buckingham, and diocese of Oxford, are contiguous to each other; that the accommodation for attending divine service at the respective parish churches in the several parishes of Hughenden and Great Missenden is very inadequate for the aggregate amount of the population of such parishes, and the distance of the said isolated portion of the said parish of Stoke Mandeville from the remainder of the said parish renders it difficult for the inhabitants of such detached portion of the said parish to attend their parish church; that in the said parish of Hughenden there is besides the parish church, one church built in Polecat-lane, at Prestwood, in the said parish, in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, which has been consecrated by the name of 'The Church of the Holy Trinity;' that such church was built and endowed by public subscription, of which the Reverend Thomas Evetts, the present incumbent thereof, contributed two thousand five hundred pounds and upwards from his own private means; that the said new church of the Holy Trinity has been built near the extremity of the said parish of Hughenden, and near to a certain portion of the said parish of Great Missenden, and the said detached portion of the said parish of Stoke Mandeville respectively, and is situate at a considerable distance from the respective parish churches of the said three several parishes:

"That by an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts,' it is amongst other things enacted, that if the major part in number of the patrons of the respective parishes out of which any consolidated chapelry is to be formed, by virtue of a certain Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or by virtue of the now reciting Act, concur as to the formation of such consolidated chapelry, and as to the body or person in whom the right of patronage to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong, the formation of such consolidated chapelry, and the vesting of the patronage of the church thereof accordingly, under the provisions of the said Act, or the now reciting Act, shall be as valid as if the patron of each such respective parish had severally agreed to the same:

"That the Right Honourable Benjamin Disraeli, of Hughenden Manor, in the county of Buckingham, M.P. is patron of the church of the said parish of Hughenden, and the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Lincoln, are the patrons of the church of the said parish of Stoke Mandeville, and Alderman Thomas Challis, the Reverend James Sherman, William Jackson Taylor, and certain other persons, acting as trustees for Cheshunt College, are the patrons of the church of the said parish of Great Missenden:

"That the said Benjamin Disraeli, as patron of the church of the said parish of Hughenden, and the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Lincoln, as patrons of the church of the said parish of Stoke Mandeville, being the major part in number of the patrons of the said three parishes, have concurred as to the formation of the consolidated chapelry hereinafter recommended to your Majesty, and as to the person in whom the right of patronage to the said church shall belong, but the said Thomas Challis, James Sherman, William Jackson Taylor, and other, the persons as aforesaid, patrons of the church of the said parish of Great Missenden, have refused to concur therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the said several parishes of Hughenden, Great Missenden, and Stoke Mandeville, it appears to them to be expedient that certain contiguous parts of the said three several parishes should be united together into one consolidated chapelry for, and to be assigned to, the said new church at Polecat-lane, Prestwood, called 'The Church of the Holy Trinity,' with respect to all ecclesiastical purposes, under the provisions of the ninth section of the said Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and of the nineteenth and twentieth sections of the said recited Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts;' and that such district so to be united should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Prestwood,' with boundaries as follows, that is to say; to commence at the junction with Moat-lane of the road in the parish of Stoke Mandeville leading from Kiln Common in a direction nearly north-east to Moat-lane, and proceed two furlongs and twenty-two yards along the fence on the east side of Moat-lane in a direction nearly south-east (and include the piece of waste land in the parish of Great Missenden on the east side of Moat-lane, and also the gardens belonging respectively to Samuel Ives, Isaac Aldridge, and Jabez Wright, encroached from such waste and the pond there), unto the field of the devisees of the late Earl of Buckinghamshire, which is on the south of the said garden of the said Jabez Wright; thence in an easterly direction eighty-eight yards along the hedge on the north side of such field, and one hundred and fifty-four yards in a direction nearly south along the hedge on the east side of such field and the field adjoining it on the south, unto the junction of such last-mentioned field (which is also the property of the said devisees of the said late earl), with the north corner of a field belonging to Mr. George Cross; thence sixty-six yards in a south-eastwardly direction, and one hundred and fifty-four yards in a direction nearly east along the fence separating the above-mentioned field, belonging to the said George Cross, and two other adjoining fields, also belonging to the said George Cross, from land belonging to the devisees of the said late earl, to the hedge on the north-west side of land belonging to Mr. James Oliff; thence ninety-nine yards in a direction nearly north-east along the hedge which separates such last-mentioned field from the land of the said devisees of the said late earl; thence one furlong in a direction south-east along the hedge which separates the said field of the said James Oliff and the two adjoining fields, also belonging to the said

James Oliff, from the land of Mr. Thomas Furnivall, unto the termination of such hedge; thence seventy-seven yards in a direction nearly southward along the hedge on the east side of the said fields, belonging to the said James Oliff, to, and thence ninety-nine yards in a direction nearly east along, a hedge separating two fields, both the property of the said Thomas Furnivall, to a lane called Blind-lane; thence two hundred and nine yards in a southward direction along such lane, called Blind-lane, to Prestwood Common; thence ninety-nine yards in a direction nearly south-east, along the north-east side of such common, to the land belonging to Mr. William Crouch; thence one hundred and forty-three yards in a direction nearly east, along the fence separating the land belonging to Mr. Joseph Honnor from the said land and the premises belonging to the said William Crouch; thence eighty-eight yards from the north-east corner of the said land belonging to the said William Crouch, and in the same, or nearly the same, direction along the backs of the row of houses belonging to Mr. James Nash, to the gate at the junction of Martin's End-lane with Prestwood Common; thence one hundred and eighty-seven yards along the east side of that part of Prestwood Common called Town Stile, in a southwardly direction, to the junction of the parish road leading past Anlow's Farm homestead, belonging to Mr. Joseph Honnor, with Green-lane; thence three furlongs and one hundred and thirty-two yards along such parish road, in an easterly direction, close to, but on the north side of, the homestead of such farm, to the hedge separating fields belonging to Mr. Thomas Stevens, and which hedge is two hundred and nine yards beyond the extremity next such parish road of the land belonging to Anlow's Farm, on the south side of such road; thence in a southwardly direction and in nearly a straight line one furlong and one hundred and forty-three yards along such last-mentioned hedge, and along the hedge on the east side of a wood, called Atkin's Wood, late the property of the late Mr. Thomas Ives, but now of Miss Ann Daniel, to a lane called Hobb's Hill-lane; thence one hundred and twenty-one yards in a south-westwardly direction, and three furlongs and eighty-eight yards in a southwardly direction along such lane to Prestwood Common; thence in a south-westwardly direction one hundred and forty-three yards along the south-east side of Prestwood Common to the homestead of Nearwood Farm; thence in a direction south-east thirty-three yards, south-west sixteen yards, north-west sixteen yards, south-west one hundred and thirty-two yards, and north-west twenty-two yards, so as to include Nearwood Farm homestead and garden to Prestwood Common; thence in a south-west direction one furlong and thirty-three yards along the south-east side of such common, and along the road leading from such common past Peterley House, to the part of such road opposite the entrance gates to Peterley House; thence in a south-eastwardly direction four furlongs along the road opposite Peterley House, to and leading from such last-mentioned road, along the fields, to its junction with the road leading from Wycombe Heath to Little Kingshill; thence four furlongs and two hundred and ten yards along such last-mentioned road in a south-westwardly direction, and along the north-west side of the part of Wycombe Heath in the parish of Great Missenden, and including the house and orchard of Mr. James Nash, on Wycombe Heath, opposite the White Horse Public-house there, to Cockpit Hole; thence westward one furlong and one hundred and fifty-four yards along the road on the north side of the pond at Cockpit Hole, to Great Kingshill Common, and

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of April 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend" and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in "populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in the said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Deal, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, and also to the consecrated chapel of Saint George, both situate in the said parish of Deal, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed districts should be respectively named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Deal,' and 'The District Chapelry of Saint George, Deal,' and that the respective boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Deal, is bounded on the east by the sea; on the north by the parish of Sholden; on the west by the eastern embankment of the South Eastern Railway; on the south-west and south by a footpath called the Gravel-walk, extending from the railway bridge, and leading into West-street at the Malt-house, and thence in a northerly direction along the centre of West-street as far as Union-row, then easterly along the middle of Union-row into Lower-street, then northerly up the middle of Lower-street as far as Griffin-street, then easterly along the middle of Griffin-street in a direct line to the sea; as such district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Deal, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured blue :

"The district chapelry of Saint George, Deal, is bounded on the east by the sea; on the south by a line drawn from the sea opposite to the end of Broad-street, and proceeds westerly along the middle of Broad-street and Queen-street, as far as West-street; on the west, north-west, and north, the district chapelry of Saint George, Deal, will be bounded by the said line proceeding northerly up the middle of West-street as far as Union-row, then turning easterly up the middle of Union-row, into Lower-street, then northerly up the middle of Lower-street as far as Griffin-street, then easterly up the middle of Griffin-street in a direct line to the sea; as such district chapelry of Saint George, Deal, is more particularly delineated on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Andrew, and also in the said chapel of Saint George (burials being so solemnized in the said church of Saint Andrew so soon as a burial-ground shall have been provided for such church, or for the district assigned thereto), and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said church and chapel respectively :

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury, has been obtained thereto as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEEN, AT WOOLWICH.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, March 31, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday the 22nd April next, at one o'clock, the Canteen in the above barrack will be let from the 14th May next to the 14th May 1855, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake bonâ fide to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted, and his sureties, must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack Master at Woolwich.

The Christian and Surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same; and it is to be understood that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and indenture of lease may be had at this office; or on application to the said Barrack Master: No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

As the person becoming tenant of the Canteen will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, he is hereby cautioned to make himself fully acquainted with the conditions of letting; prior to his making a proposal.

The rent of the Canteen as a tenement or dwelling is to be proposed at the sum stated below; therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants occupying the barrack, the number being ascertained from the Barrack Master's returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated: thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.
