"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for altering the bounds of the district of Treleigh, in the county of Cornwall, and diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the herein secondly-recited Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority provided in the herein first-recited Act, at any time or times within twelve months after the date of the license of the minister first licensed to any separate district constituted under the provisions of the same Act, to alter the bounds of such district, although any alteration be not required with a view to the constituting of another separate district: Provided always, that the scheme for making any such alteration shall be subject to all the provisions relating to schemes for constituting separate districts under the said first-recited Act:

"And whereas it is by the herein thirdly-recited Act enacted, that the powers and authority relating to the alteration of the boundaries of districts contained in the said secondly-recited Act may, as to any such district now existing, notwithstanding the limitation in the same Act contained, be exercised at any time within five years from the passing of the said thirdly-recited Act:

"And whereas the said district of Treleigh was duly constituted out of the parish of Redruth, in the said county and diocese, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly gazetted:

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and appears to us to be expedient, that the bounds of such district should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the boundaries of the said district of Treleigh shall hereafter be altered and extended so as to include all that part of the said parish of Redruth, situate on the south of the existing district of Treleigh, and bounded on the south, south-east, south-west, and west by an imaginary line extending from Basset-road towards the south-west, along the middle of the great road from Redruth to Truro, as far as Drump-lane; and thence along the middle of such lane, into the great road leading from Redruth to Saint Ann's, and along the middle of such road, towards the north, to Treleigh Gate; and thence westward along the middle of such lane, and of Pond-lane, to the great road from Redruth to Portreath; and thence towards the north-west along the middle of such road as far as the original southern boundary of the said district; all of which is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed, and shall be added to, and included in, and shall form part of the said district of Treleigh.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the said district, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and no objections have been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
