WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues and patronage," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for abolishing peculiar and exempt jurisdictions in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas it is by the first-recited Act enacted that we shall from time to time prepare and lay before your Majesty in Council schemes for carrying into effect certain recommendations therein recited (inter alia, that the limits of deanries and archdeaconries be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry,) and it is provided that it shall be competent to us to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

"And whereas by the second-y-recited Act it is declared and enacted, that the arrangements with reference to peculiar or exempt jurisdictions which we are, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, empowered and authorized to propose in any scheme for carrying into effect any of the recommendations therein recited, may be recommended and proposed in any scheme or schemes, whether relating to such arrangements solely, or also to any other matter and thing contained in any or either of the Acts therein recited, or of the Act now in recital:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that on and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be first published in the London Gazette, all parishes and places locally situate within the limits of the said diocese of Ely, and of the several archdeaconries of the same respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others, your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall, notwithstanding any peculiar or other ecclesiastical jurisdiction, or exemption from jurisdiction, which any of such parishes, places, churches, chapels, clergy, or others, may possess or be subject to, or claim to possess or be subject to, be respectively under and subject only to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bishop of Ely, and of the respective archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of the said diocese of Ely, within the limits of which they shall respectively be so locally situate, except the cathedral church of Ely, which shall remain and be subject to the jurisdiction and visitation to which the same is now by law subject, and to none other; provided always that nothing herein contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect any rights, privileges, or exemptions of the University of Cambridge, or of any college or hall thereof, except so far as relates to the exercise of any ecclesiastical jurisdiction by any such college or hall, or the head thereof, over any parish, or the churches or chapels of such parish, or the clergy or others within the same.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £300 for the due performance of the contract.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEEN, AT WOOLWICH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, March 31, 1851.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday the 22nd April next, at one o'clock, the Canteen in the above barrack will be let from the 14th May next to the 14th May 1855, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake bonâ fide to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted, and his sureties, must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack Master at Woolwich.

The Christian and Surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same, and it is to be understood that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and indenture of lease may be had at this office, or on application to the said Barrack Master. No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act, Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As the person becoming tenant of the Canteen will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, he is hereby cautioned to make himself fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to his making a proposal.

The rent of the Canteen as a tenement or dwelling is to be proposed at the sum stated below; therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants occupying the barrack, the number being ascertained from the Barrack Master's returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated: thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.

WOOLWICH.....CANTEEN.....£25.
