

is declared and enacted, that the arrangements with reference to peculiar or exempt jurisdictions which we are, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, empowered and authorized to propose in any scheme for carrying into effect any of the recommendations therein recited, may be recommended and proposed in any scheme or schemes, whether relating to such arrangements solely, or also to any other matter and thing contained in any or either of the Acts therein recited, or of the Act now in recital:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that on and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be first published in the London Gazette, all parishes and places locally situate within the limits of the said diocese of Ely, and of the several archdeaconries of the same respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others, your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall, notwithstanding any peculiar or other ecclesiastical jurisdiction, or exemption from jurisdiction, which any of such parishes, places, churches, chapels, clergy, or others, may possess or be subject to, or claim to possess or be subject to, be respectively under and subject only to the jurisdiction and authority of the Bishop of Ely, and of the respective archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of the said diocese of Ely, within the limits of which they shall respectively be so locally situate, except the cathedral church of Ely, which shall remain and be subject to the jurisdiction and visitation to which the same is now by law subject, and to none other; provided always that nothing herein contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect any rights, privileges, or exemptions of the University of Cambridge, or of any college or hall thereof, except so far as relates to the exercise of any ecclesiastical jurisdiction by any such college or hall, or the head thereof, over any parish, or the churches or chapels of such parish, or the clergy or others within the same.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of April 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, in Dean Forest, and of the parishes of English Bicknor, Newland, and Ruardean, all in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, Dean Forest, and of the said parishes of English Bicknor, Newland, and Ruardean, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of the Holy Jesus, situate at Lydbrook, in the said ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, Dean Forest, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged or extended by the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Lydbrook,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing on the western bank of the river Wye, at the point where the hedge forming the separation between Enclosures No. 2 and No. 3 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of English Bicknor, meets such river, and from thence proceeding south-westerly along the hedges separating Enclosure No. 2 from Nos. 3 and 6, and then by the hedge of Enclosure No. 7, also from No. 6, as far as the lane leading to Lydbrook, then proceeding south-easterly along the middle of that lane to the hedge separating Enclosure No. 26 from Enclosure No. 36, and also Enclosure No. 27 from No. 36, then along that hedge south-westerly as far as the hedge of Enclosure No. 32, then south-easterly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 36 from Enclosure No. 32, then southerly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 32 from Enclosures Nos. 35 and 33, then (crossing the lane leading to Tump Farm House), over to the hedge separating Enclosure No. 85 from Enclosure No. 84, then proceeding southerly along such hedge, and also the hedge separating Enclosure No. 88 from Enclosure No. 89, then turning easterly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 89 from Enclosure No. 90, as far as Enclosure No. 81, then south-westerly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 90 from Enclosures Nos. 81 and 91, as far as the western side of Enclosure No. 91, then proceeding southerly, and south-easterly, along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 92 from Enclosure No. 91, as far as Enclosure No. 76, then southerly along the hedge sepa-
