

rating Enclosure No. 92 from Enclosure No. 76, then westerly and south-westerly, along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 92 from Enclosure No. 75, as far as Enclosure No. 74, then south-easterly and southerly, along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 74 from Enclosure No. 75, as far as Enclosure No. 73, then easterly and scutherly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 73 from Enclosures Nos. 75, 76, and 72, as far as the Enclosure No. 154, then easterly along the hedge separating Enclosure No. 72 from Enclosure No. 154, (all on the tithe commutation map of the parish of English Bicknor,) and from the southern hedge of Enclosure No. 72, in a southerly and south-westerly direction along the boundary line which separates the said parish of English Bicknor from the Holy Trinity district of the Forest of Dean, as far as the lane leading from Eastbach to Mitchel Dean, then down that lane in a southerly direction to the turnpike-road leading from Coleford to Mitchel Dean, then following that road south-easterly towards Mitchel Dean, for about a mile and a quarter past Mirey Stock, and the Severn and Wye tramway, as far as the lane leading to Serridge Green, there leaving the turnpike-road, turning to the left in a direction nearly due north, and striking first across the open forest, and then across the Pluds Enclosure in a perfectly straight line to the Enclosure Gate leading out to Eddys-lane, then proceeding up that lane in a northerly direction, having the encroachments Nos. 103, 102, 101, 100 and 121, on the forest map on the right hand, and Nos. 90, 99, 98 and 97, on the said map on the left hand, as far as the parish of Ruardean, then turning to the left in a westerly and north-easterly direction along the boundary line which separates that parish, first from the ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, and then from a detached portion of the parish of Newland, and then again turning north-westerly and westerly, along the line separating the said parish of Ruardean from the ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, as far as the lane at the extremity of that tongue of land forming part of the said ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity at Lydbrook, just above the river Wye, then following that lane in a north-westerly direction down to the turnpike-road from Lydbrook to Ross, and across that road to the river side, then down the river, following the boundary, first of the parish of Ruardean, and afterwards of the parish of English Bicknor, as far as the point where the hedge forming the separation between Enclosures No. 2 and No. 3, on the tithe commutation map of the parish of English Bicknor, meets the river, being the point from which this description commenced, as such consolidated chapelry of Lydbrook is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow, green, pink, and blue.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend James Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, of the Right Honourable Edward Geoffry, Earl of Derby, First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury (on behalf of your Majesty, as patron of the church of the said ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, Dean Forest), of the Visitors of the Foundation of John Michel, Esquire, in the Queen's College, in Oxford (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of English Bicknor), of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the diocese of Llandaff (patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Newland), and of the Reverend Thomas Huntingford, Master of Arts, Precentor of the cathedral church of Hereford, and patron (in right of such precentorship) of the parish church of the said parish of Ruardean, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Lydbrook, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said James, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, Edward Geoffry, Earl of Derby, Alfred, Bishop of Llandaff, and Thomas Huntingford, have respectively signed and sealed this representation, and the said Visitors of the Foundation of the said John Michel have hereunto affixed their corporate or common seal.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Edward Geoffry, Earl of Derby (on behalf of your Majesty, as patron of the church of the said ecclesiastical district of the Holy Trinity, Dean Forest,) and the said Visitors of the Foundation of the said John Michel, the said Alfred, Bishop of Llandaff, and Thomas Huntingford, as such respective patrons as aforesaid (testified as aforesaid), with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners (testified as hereinafter mentioned), and of the said James Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church at Lydbrook aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised alternately by your Majesty, your heirs or successors, and by the said Visitors of the Foundation of the said John Michel, but that the first right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid should be exercised by your Majesty, your heirs or successors.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church at Lydbrook, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of April 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts;" or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council
