

"SCHEDULE.

"All that the manor, rectory, and church of Kenninghall, in the county of Norfolk, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of William Jones and William Littleton, their heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-eighth day of September one thousand eight hundred and four, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that tenement, with the appurtenances, commonly called the King's Head Tavern, in Chancery-lane, London, sometime in the tenure or occupation of Gibbons Bagnall, then of Samuel Salt, Vintner, since of Thomas Walker, Vintner, and afterwards in the tenure of Hugh James, or his copartners, situate between the mansion place called Serjeant's Inn, in Chancery-lane aforesaid, on the north side, and the King's highway, called Fleet-street, on the south side, the one head whereof abutteth on a tenement formerly of Francis Larkin, Pewterer, since of Thomas Edwards, Pastry Cook, and afterwards of the said Hugh James, on the east, and the other head abutteth on the King's street called Chancery-lane on the west, which said hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto, are now in the tenure or occupation of the said Hugh James, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the thirteenth day of October one thousand seven hundred and seventy, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the parsonage of Madingley, in the county of Cambridge, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of James Hallett, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twelve, granted to him by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage appropriate of Roughton, in the county of Norfolk, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of Edward Lord Suffield, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, granted to him by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the rectory of West Dereham, in the county of Norfolk, with the rights and appurtenances to the late dissolved monastery of West Dereham, in the said county of Norfolk sometime belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of George Leonard Jenyns, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-seventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all those eleven several pieces or parcels of fen land; part of the site of the manor or park of Downham, and the demesne and fen grounds and appurtenances unto the same belonging, in the parish of Downham, in the Isle of Ely, formerly demised to William Martin, containing in the whole one hundred and eighty-five acres, little more or less, abutting towards the north on a certain large drain, called the Commissioners' Drain, and towards the east on a certain other drain, Nine Feet Drain, and towards the west on a certain drove-way, leading from the town of Downham to the Commissioners' Drain, and abutting south on closes respectively called

Gravel Close, Fordham's Horse Close, Bushy Frith, Betty's Piece, and Old Mill Ground, all which several closes are part of the site of the manor and park or demesnes of Downham aforesaid, and also all that draining-mill, situate near the centre of the northern extremity of the said lands hereinbefore described, and on or near the edge of the said Commissioners' Drain for the purpose of draining the same lands, and other particulars of lands, formerly demised to William Martin, which said several pieces or parcels of land, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging (with certain exceptions), are now in the tenure or occupation of George Grant, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the sixteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and four, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all those closes, pieces, or parcels of land, situate, lying, and being in Inham Field, in Wisbeach Saint Mary's, in the Isle of Ely, and in the county of Cambridge, containing by estimation one hundred and twenty-two acres, two roods, and twenty-eight perches, little more or less, but on a late survey found to contain one hundred and twenty-two acres, two roods, and twenty-two perches, now or late in nine several pieces, abutting on Bevis-lane in part, and land late of George Grindle in other part east, and land late of John Waddington in part, and land late of the Reverend James Harris in other part west, on other lands late of said James Harris south, and the common green or highway north, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, which said pieces of land, and the appurtenances thereto belonging, are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of Samuel Nicholls, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the thirtieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all those closes, or pieces, or parcels of land, containing by admeasurement one hundred acres, two roods, and thirty-three perches, be the same more or less, and now in six or eight several pieces, situate in Birnfield, in Wisbeach Saint Peter's and Wisbeach Saint Mary's, in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, next Lord's-lane north and east, Cross Drove in part, and land late of Robert Freeman, Esquire, in other part south, and on Bevis-lane in part, and land late of the said Robert Freeman in other part west, which said hereditaments, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of Ann Taylor, her heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the rectory or parsonage of Codicote, in the county of Hertford, with the rights, members, and appurtenances thereto belonging, all which are now (with certain exceptions), in the tenure or occupation of Levi Ames and Sir Giles Rooke, their heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-seventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and five, granted by the then Bishop of Ely, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that the manor of Dry Drayton, otherwise Coventry in Dry Drayton, in the county of Cambridge, with the appurtenances; and also all that one piece or parcel of land, situate in Callowfield, containing three acres, three roods, and twenty-five perches, allotted unto the see of