

the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packets sent through France or any other foreign country to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon, nor to any packets sent by private ships.

And we further order and direct that the term "by the post" used in this warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat, and shall also include the conveyance through Egypt, so long as no transit rate of postage be payable thereon; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made; and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and, from time to time, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 6th day of May 1852.

Henry G. Lennox.
Tho. Bateson.

National Debt Office, May 14, 1852.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having, by virtue of the powers vested in them by the Act 3 William 4th, cap. 14, revoked and recalled, by warrant under their hands, the tables heretofore in use for granting annuities upon single lives, and annuities to continue for a certain term of years, under the said Act, and having approved and authorized the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to adopt, until further notice, certain other tables to be used in lieu and in place of the tables so revoked and recalled as aforesaid; the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice of such revocation and of their Lordships' approval of such new tables, and that they are ready to issue such new tables to the Trustees of Savings' Banks and Parochial Societies, and to grant annuities in conformity therewith.

A. Y. Spearman, Comptroller-General.
