Insolvent Debtors' Court.—Dividend, No. 30,921 T.

THE creditors of John Marshall, late a Clerk in the Navy Office, may receive a Dividend of four shillings and two pence in the pound, (in addition to former Dividends of twelve shillings and seven pence), by applying to Mr. Miller, Solicitor for the Assignee, No. 15, Clifford's Inn.

NOTICE, pursuant to a Rule of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, in the matter of Richard Bird, an insolvent debtor, heretofore of Hopesay, near Bishop's Castle, in the county of Salop, Farmer, the matters of whose Petition were heretofore appointed to be heard on a day gazetted for the same, and now past. Whereas application supported by affidavit has been made by Charles Joseph Wade, the executor of Rosamond Beddoes, Spinster, deceased, for the provisional assignee of the said Court to make, or join in making, a conveyance or assignment of an interest now vested in him (no other person having become assignee), in certain lands and tenements, namely: all that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, and garden adjoining thereto, bounded on the east and south by the messuage, garden, and yard, thereinbefore allotted to the said Jane Griffiths, on the west by the street or highway in Hopesay, and on the north by a garden, late of the said Richard Whitehall, deceased; and all that yard and orchard, or close of land with the buildings thereon, except the south end of the range of buildings thereinbefore allotted to the said Jane Griffiths, containing about two roods and thirty-five perches (were the same more or less), bounded on the east partly by the said White Leasow and partly by land late of the said Richard Whitehall, deceased, on the south by land late of the said Richard Whitehall, on the west by the said street or highway in Hopesay, and on the north by the yard and orchard thereinbefore allotted to the said Jane Griffiths; and all that piece or parcel of arable land, called the Wallners, containing eleven acres and thirty-five perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of arable land, called the Laborland, containing six acres, three roods, and twenty-five perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of pasture and wood land, called Swainshall, cow pasture and wood, containing together seven acres, one rood, and nineteen perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of meadow land, called the Transh Yard or Trock Yard, containing one acre, three roods, and sixteen perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of arable land, called the Middle Greenway, containing five acres and seventeen perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of arable land, called the Big Greenway, containing nine acres and ten perches (were the same more or less); and all that piece or parcel of arable land, containing two acres, three roods, and thirty perches, were the same more or less (being the upper part of a piece of land, called Upper Greenway), lately divided from the other part by a newly-made hedge, and bounded in all other parts thereof by lands belonging to Barlow Farm; and all that piece or parcel of wood land, called the Snape Wood, containing seven acres, two roods, and eight perches (were the same more or less); and all that other piece or parcel of meadow and wood land, called the Snape, containing together three acres and twelve perches (were the same more or less), together with the rights, members, and appurtenances to the said premises belonging, in all which said hereditaments and premises the said Richard Bird and the said provisional assignee of the said Court have, or one of them has, an equity of redemption on payment of the sum of one thousand nine hundred and forty-five pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence, which interest is represented to be of no value to creditors; any creditor, or other person concerned in objecting to such application, must shew cause in person, or by counsel, against the same, in the said Court, in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields, on Monday the 7th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, when the Court will proceed thereupon, pursuant to the Statute.
