

mer in two Armies, the one commanded by the Elector of Bavaria, and the other by the Duke of Lorraine.

Vienna, April 18. The last Letters from the Camp before Mongatz, said, They had drawn all the water out of the Ditch of the Palanque; And that they were filling the said Ditch, and making their Galleries, and hoped to be ready in three or four days to give an Assault to the Lower Town; That they continued to throw a great many Bombs and Carcasses into the place, which put the Besieged into much disorder; And that they had taken a Jew, who endeavoured to escape out of the Town with Jewels to a very considerable value. The General Rendezvous of the Imperial Army is appointed to be on the 15th of the next Month; It's said the Prince of Transylvania will join his Forces with those of the Emperor against the Turks.

Elague, April 30. The States General have ratified the Instrument for the including the Elector of Brandenburg in the Treaty of Alliance lately renewed between the King of Sweden and this State. They write from Cleves, that the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel was expected there in few days, and that from thence he would go to Berlin, to confer with the Elector of Brandenburg about the present Juncture of Affairs.

Brussels, April 30. Yesterday our Governor General went from hence for Flanders, accompanied with a great many Persons of Quality; He will be this night at Gaunt, and on Thursday at Bruges, and is not expected back here till the beginning of the next week. The French, we are told, are preparing for three Encampments, one in Artois, another between the Sambre and the Meuse, and the third on the Saar. The Letters from Vienna of the 18th Instant tell us, that the Rebels in Mongatz make a very vigorous defence, and that the Imperialists carry on their Galleries with a great deal of difficulty.

Paris, May 1. The Marschal d'Estree sailed from Brest the 19th past, with Nine Men of War, and Four Fireships, besides Tenders; And the next day the Sieur de Villette joined him with the four Ships under his Command. And we have likewise advice, that the Duke of Mortemar sailed the 20th of the same Month from Toulon with nine Men of War, three Fireships, three Gallies with Mortars, and three Fly-boats carrying Ammunition and Bombs. The King has made Four new Knights of the Order, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, the Prince of Conti, and the Duke of Maine.

Dublin, April 19. The 15th Instant the Right Honourable Sir Charles Porter, appointed by His Majesty to be Lord Chancellor of this Kingdom, arrived here from England; And the next day the Great Seal was delivered to him by his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant in Council, where his Lordship took his Place, after having taken the usual Oaths.

Westminster, April 23. Sir John Holt Recorder of London, Sir Ambrose Philips, Christopher Milton Esq; John Powell Esq; John Tate Esq; William Rawlinson Esq; William Killingworth Esq; Hugh Hodgson Esq; Thomas Geeres Esq; and George Hutchins Esq; being called by the Kings Writ to take upon them the State and Degree of Serjeants at Law, they accordingly appeared the first day of the Term at the Chancery Bar, where having taken the Oaths according to Custom, the Lord Chancellor made a short Speech to them; After which the new Serjeants delivered a Ring to his Lordship, praying him to present it to the King, with their Duty and most Humble Thanks for the Honor His Majesty had been pleased to confer upon them. And this day the new Serjeants having met and performed in the Inner Temple Hall (the Lord Chief Justice of England being of that Society) the Ceremony of Counting, and had their Quoifs put on by the Judges, walked from thence, being clothed in Party coloured Robes, Violet and Purple, accompanied by a great many Gentlemen of the Long Robe out of the several Societies in the usual manner to Westminster; Being come into the Hall, they were brought, each between two Senior Serjeants, to the Bar of the Common-Pleas, where they again Counted in their order before all the Judges; and then gave Rings with this Motto, Deus, Rex, Lex. After which the Court rose; and the new Serjeants entertained the Lord Chancellor, with many of the Nobility, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality, at a splendid Dinner in Serjeants Inn in Fleet-street.

Sir John Holt and Sir Ambrose Philips are made the Kings Serjeants at Law.

Whitehall, April 25. This day Count Salazar, Envoy from the Marquis de Gastagna Governor General of the Spanish Netherlands, had Audiente of their Majesties, being Conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Master of the Ceremonies.
