FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1852.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 12, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, the 3rd of June next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

And those Ladies who are to be presented at the Drawing-Room on the 3rd of June next, are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office on Tuesday the 1st of June next, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, which name shall correspond with those previously sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered.

Board of Green Cloth, Buckingham-Palace, May 28, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages proceeding to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 3rd of June, are to fall into line and go down the left-hand side of St. James's-street, enter at the iron gate nearest the Palace, set down at the Arcade, turn round, and go out by the iron gate nearest Marlborough-House, to wait in St. James's-square. When called, they are to pass from the square through Charles-street, into Regent-street and Jernyn-street, go down St. James's-street as before, take up, and pass away through Pall-Mall.

No hackney carriages will be admitted within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, carriage-tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday, from eleven till three o'clock; their carriages are to pass through Constitution-hill-gate, into St. James's-Park: those belonging to the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers are to set down at the Ambassadors'-entrance in Marlborough-court, at the east end of St. James's-Palace, and wait there till called to take up, when they are to pass away by Constitution-hill. The carriages of Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State are to set down in the Middle-court, and wait there: the others are likewise to set down in the Middle-court, but are to wait in Stable-yard, or St. James's-Park: when called to take up, they are, on leaving the Palace, to pass away up St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket; to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by a Marshalman in attendance; and no carriage can be allowed to approach or leave the Palace by any other route than as above directed.

MONTROSE, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of May 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;" and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes;" or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of May one
