

Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority vested in them by the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty that on or about the twenty-third day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of the diocese of Winchester) made a representation to your Majesty in Council that it appeared to them to be expedient, and therefore humbly prayed that a particular district might be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the parish of Richmond, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, under and by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that the district so proposed to be assigned to the said church of Saint John should be named 'Saint John's District,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those set forth in the said representation, and next hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: It commences on the west side of the high road leading from Richmond Hill, by Home Castle, east, to a boundary line of Richmond parish, north, north-east, and north along that line, west to Green-lane, so as to include a place called the Conduit and premises occupied by Legg, Esq. on the east side of Green-lane and Blind-lane, to Sandy-lane, continues westward down Sandy-lane, south side of Kew Heath, south-west down Kew-lane to a mark X on the south-west angle of the boundary wall of Kew or Richmond Gardens, from thence proceeds west-south-west and north-west to part of the Royal Gardens, east to Duke's-court and a house and garden in the occupation of the Misses Millaken, marked X, which house is not included in Saint John's District, south-east to Old Flower Garden, Little Green, Duke's-lane, south side of late Town Pond and World's End, continuing north side of road leading from Richmond to Marsh-gate and Spring-terrace, south-west to Paradise-row, south-east to Mount Ararat, Warple Way, and Friar's Stile, south-west to a footway leading from the Vineyard to Friar's Stile, and south-east to a point where it commenced on the west side of the high road, near Home Castle, and which district was more particularly delineated on the plan annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured pink.

"That, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight, your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the proposed assignment of the said district, and to order that the same should be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said parish of Richmond, and also of the said district which was so assigned to the said church of Saint John, it appears to them to be expedient that the boundaries of such district should be altered under or by virtue of the power or authority for such purpose contained in the sixth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged and extended by the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that the boundaries next hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those comprised in the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; that is to say:

"The boundary line of Saint John's district to commence on the west side of the high road leading from Richmond Hill, on the east side of Home Castle, to a boundary line of Richmond parish, north, so as to include the conduit, and also that part of the ground in Richmond parish, which is occupied by William Frederick Gostling, Esquire, north-east along the boundary line separating the parishes of Richmond and Mortlake, as far as Sandy-lane, then westward down Sandy-lane, into Kew-road, south-west along the middle of Kew-road, to the boundary fence separating the Royal Gardens from part of the old Deer Park, then running westerly along such fence for about three hundred yards, then running south-westerly to the corner of the wall of the footpath, and continuing along such boundary wall, until it reaches the bridge, over the line of the Windsor, Staines, and South Western Railway, near the north corner of Richmond Green, and entrance into the old Deer Park, then easterly along the north side of the line of that railway, up to the railway bridge in Park Shot-road, formerly called Kew Foot-lane, and passing thence south-westerly along the road to the corner of Duke-street, then up that street, eastwardly along the south side of the late Mechanics Institution, (formerly the site of the Old Town Pond), and along the middle of the road leading from Richmond to Marshgate, as far as Spring-terrace, south-west to the end of Spring-terrace, and the corner of a road formerly a worple way, leading to Mount Ararat, then southerly along that road to Friar's Stile, then south-easterly along the north-east side of the footway, through a field leading to Home Castle, to the point where the boundary commences, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"That the consents of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, of the Provost and Fellows of King's College, within the University of Cambridge, (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Richmond,) and of the Reverend Harry Dupuis, Bachelor of Divinity, (Vicar and Incumbent of the said parish church), have been severally obtained to such proposed alteration of boundaries as aforesaid, as required by the two Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, has hereto set his hand and seal the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the said Harry Dupuis has also hereto set his hand and seal, the twenty-fourth day of May in the same year, and the said provost
