FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1852.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 15th day of June 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the episcopal income of the Bishop of Worcester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, hath, with a view to the regulation of his episcopal income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Agreement made this twenty-seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, of the other part.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a Commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient that until the said Commissioners should have made their report and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose; it was enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful, by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as thereafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more:

"And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided that, in order to leave to the Bishop of Worcester for the time being the average annual income of five thousand pounds, there should be paid to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, by the bishop succeeding to such see upon the then next avoidance thereof, and his successors, the fixed annual sum of two thousand three hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments in every year:

"And whereas the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, succeeded to the said see upon such next avoidance, which occurred before the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and now is bishop thereof, and he hath signified his willingness, in accordance with the provisions of the said herein-recited Act, to accept, as from the first day of January now last past, the said annual income or yearly sum of five thousand pounds and no more, in lieu of the present and future income arising from his said see, or receivable by him under the provisions of the said recited Order in Council, or of any other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments of any kind or description whatsoever, received or enjoyed by him, and to enter into an agreement with the said Commissioners for regulating the income to be received by him as from the said first day of January now last past, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ ‘ Now, it is hereby agreed by and between the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, as follows; that is to say :

“ ‘ 1. That the said bishop shall, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, and thereafter half-yearly on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every succeeding year, deliver to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall from time to time direct, a correct account in writing, certified under his hand, of all monies actually received by him, whether consisting of arrears or otherwise, accrued due since the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, in respect of the revenues of his see, or of such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, during the half year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or the thirtieth day of June, as the case may be, then last past, and also of all monies remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or of any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on account of such arrears as aforesaid, or otherwise at the date of such account, and in such account to be forthwith delivered and in every such future half-yearly account, shall be included as money actually received by the said bishop. such a sum as shall from time to time be agreed upon between him and the said Commissioners, or in case of their disagreement then as shall be determined by two indifferent persons, one to be chosen by the bishop, and the other by the said Commissioners, or, in case of the disagreement of such two persons, then by an umpire to be chosen by them, as a fair and reasonable occupation rent to be charged against the said bishop, for such parts of the estates of the said see other than and except the palace belonging to the said see at Hartlebury, with the grounds and premises thereunto belonging as shall have been in the possession or occupation of the said bishop, or of any person or persons under his authority or permission (other than and except under any lease, or agreement for a lease, to be granted or entered into after the execution of these presents, with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned), during the preceding half year, or any part thereof, and according to the term of his, her, or their having been in such possession or occupation; and if it shall appear by any such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as shall be allowed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or their surveyor, or receiver, the net amount actually received has exceeded two thousand five hundred pounds, being one half of the said amount of the annual income so fixed for the said see as aforesaid, the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said bishop; and he doth hereby agree to pay such surplus to the credit of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at the Bank of England, and that upon the account so delivered being examined and approved by the Treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the time being, their receipt for the amount of such surplus shall be given to the said bishop, and shall be a good and valid discharge for all payments or contributions in respect of the said annual sum of two thousand three hundred pounds, for which the said bishop is liable under the said Order in Council; but if it shall appear upon due investigation of any such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount so received is less than one half of the said annual income so fixed as aforesaid for the said see, there shall be paid by the said Commissioners, and they do hereby agree to pay to the said bishop, on the first day of November, or the first day of May, as the case may be, then next following, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency.

“ ‘ 2. Provided always, and it is further agreed by the said bishop, that subject to the right of apportionment (if any), hereinafter mentioned, after the delivery of such account, all arrears of rents due or other payments in respect of the see, or of any such profits or emoluments as aforesaid, which may have remained unpaid at the end of the half year to which such account shall relate, shall form part of the future revenues of the said see, and shall, when received, be included in the account for the then current half year, so to be delivered to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and the said bishop shall take and use all lawful means and remedies for obtaining and compelling payment of all such moneys as last mentioned, within a reasonable time, or it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to use the name and act as the attorneys of the said bishop, in demanding, obtaining, or compelling payment of such monies, and giving good and sufficient discharges for the same, and all monies so recovered, after payment of the costs of obtaining or compelling payment thereof, and of all incidental expenses, shall be carried over to the common fund of the said Commissioners.

“ ‘ 3. Provided nevertheless, that with respect to all such sums of money as were accruing in respect of the same revenues, profits, or emoluments, on the said first day of January now last past, and have been since, or shall be hereafter, received by the said bishop, he, the said bishop, shall be entitled to such apportioned part thereof (if any), as his legal personal representative would have been by law entitled to, in case he had died on that day, and the said see had thereby become void.

“ ‘ 4. Provided also, and it is hereby further mutually agreed between the said bishop and the said Commissioners, that all monies which shall be due to the said bishop on account of his said see, or any such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, at the time of his avoidance of the said see, whether by death or otherwise, or which, in case of the avoidance thereof by death, shall accrue to his legal personal representatives, including all arrears accrued due since the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, subject to such right of apportionment (if any) as aforesaid, shall be considered as belonging to the said Commissioners, and shall and may be received or recovered by them, or by the said bishop, or his representatives, on their behalf, and paid over to them with as little delay as practicable; and upon such avoidance, an account shall forthwith be made and rendered by the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, to the said Commissioners, in such form as they shall require, of all monies received or to be accounted for as monies received by him, or them, since the then last half yearly account, and also of all monies then remaining unpaid in respect of the said see, or such other ecclesiastical profits or emoluments as aforesaid, and if it shall appear by such account, that after allowing all such reasonable and customary payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of five thousand pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June, or the thirty-first day of December, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see, and in that event, then the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England, or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received, and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of five thousand pounds as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“5. And the said bishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners, for their approval, a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered, for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine, or other like consideration, (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, in writing under their common seal, and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine, or other like consideration, shall in any case exceed one half of the said annual income of five thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council, and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“In witness whereof, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.

“(Signed) H. Worcester.”

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.
