

the net amount received, or to be accounted for, has exceeded so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income, or sum of five thousand pounds, as would be in proportion to the number of days which shall have intervened between the thirtieth day of June, or the thirty-first day of December, whichever shall have happened next before such avoidance of the said see, and in that event, then the said bishop, or his representatives, as the case may be, shall pay over such surplus to the credit of the said Commissioners, at the Bank of England, or if it shall appear upon the examination of such account, that after allowing such payments and deductions as aforesaid, the net income so received, and to be accounted for, is less in amount than so much of the current half yearly payment of the said annual income of five thousand pounds as shall be in proportion to such intervening number of days as last mentioned, then the said Commissioners shall pay to the said bishop, or his legal personal representatives, such a sum of money as shall make up such deficiency.

“5. And the said bishop doth further agree that, before granting any lease, or entering into any agreement for granting a lease, by way of renewal, or in any other way disposing of the possession of any property belonging to the said see, or any such other profits or emoluments as aforesaid, on the property from whence the same shall arise, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever therein, whether by parole or otherwise, and whether for valuable consideration or not, he will submit to the said Commissioners, for their approval, a statement in writing of his proposal to grant, enter into, or make such lease, agreement, or disposition, and of all the considerations (if any) whether by way of fine, premium, rent, royalty, or other nature, kind, or description whatsoever, to be received, taken, reserved, or rendered, for the granting or making thereof, together with all other terms of such intended lease, agreement, or disposition, and an explanation of the principle upon which such fine, or other like consideration, (if any) shall have been calculated, and that no such lease shall be granted, or agreement entered into, or other disposition made, without the consent of the said Commissioners, in writing under their common seal, and if it shall appear that the amount of any fine, or other like consideration, shall in any case exceed one half of the said annual income of five thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct such fine to be paid to them, and the said bishop doth hereby agree that the same shall be so paid accordingly.

“6. Provided always, that this agreement, with all matters herein contained, is subject to the approval and ratification of Her Majesty in Council, and the said Commissioners do hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, so that the same, when ratified, shall remain in force until Parliament shall otherwise direct.

“In witness whereof, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, hath hereunto set his hand, the day and year first above written.
