

CONTRACTS for VELLUM and ACCOUNT BOOK BINDING, RULING, &c. for the Public Service, England.

Her Majesty's Stationery Office,
July 6, 1852.

THE Comptroller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office is ready to receive tenders from such Bookbinders as may be desirous to contract for Vellum and Account Book Binding, Ruling, &c. for the Public Service.

Printed forms of the particulars of contract, and of the scales upon which the biddings are to be made, are ready for delivery at the Stationery Office, James-street, Westminster, where also samples of the binding may be seen.

The tenders, marked on the cover "Tender for Binding, Ruling, &c." must be delivered on or before twelve o'clock on Monday the 26th day of July 1852, after which day and hour no tender will be received.

CONTRACTS for SCOTCH and PEARL BARLEY, and EAST INDIA RICE.

Office of the Director-General of the Medical Department of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 6, 1852.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice that, on Tuesday the 20th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into the Medical Stores at Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, all such quantities of

SCOTCH and PEARL BARLEY,

and,

EAST INDIA RICE,

as may from time to time be demanded for twelve calendar months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Samples of the articles must be produced by the parties tendering.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

PETTY SUTLER'S SHOP BELONGING TO THE MARINE BARRACKS AT WOOLWICH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, July 1, 1852.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, the Petty Suttler's Shop belonging to the above Barracks will be let, with immediate possession, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake bona fide to occupy the Shop, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved.

The conditions of the agreement may be seen at this Office or at the Office of the Barrack Master at Woolwich. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Petty Suttler's Shop," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place, and must be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £300 for the due performance of the agreement, and the letter must contain a reference to some persons well acquainted with the sufficiency of the parties so offering to become bound, and persons in partnership, with the tenant or with each other, will not be accepted as sureties.

As the person becoming tenant of the shop will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the agreement, and to the full payment of the rent, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, he is hereby cautioned to make himself fully acquainted with the conditions of letting prior to his making a proposal.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM AND WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, June 28, 1852.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 29th July next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Rum (the produce of the British possessions in the West Indies), 5,000 gallons; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Rum (the produce of other British possessions), 5,000 gallons; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 2,000 quarters; half to be delivered in a month, and the remainder in a month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Tenders will not be received for a less quantity than 1,000 gallons of rum, and 500 quarters of wheat.

Samples of the rum (not less than 1 quart of each description), and of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering, and separate tenders must be made for each description of rum.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the office of Commander Bevis, at Liverpool, and of the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and those for rum must be accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £20 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.
