Vice Chancellor

Kindersley.—Wednesday the 11th day of August, in the 16th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1852, between John Henderson, John Hewson, and James Ross, the Official Managers of the North of England Joint Stock Banking Company, for and on behalf of the said Company, Plaintiffs; Mary Ann Thomas, Defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Prior, of counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, on the 20th day of January 1851, filed their claim in this Court against the defendant, as by the Record and Writ Clerk's Certificate now produced and read appears, and sued out a writ of summons requiring the defendant, Mary Ann Thomas, to cause an appearance to be entered to such writ. That it appears by the affidavit of William Baglee, the affidavit of George Kewney, two affidavits of John Bidwell, and two affidavits of John Kindall the younger, that the said defendant, Mary Ann Thomas, had been within the jurisdiction of the Court within two years before the writ of summons in this claim was issued, and that upon enquiry at her last place of abode she could not be found so as to be served with such process, and that there is just ground to believe that such defendant has absconded or secreted herself to avoid being served with process, it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant, Mary Ann Thomas, do appear to the said writ of summons, on or before the 2nd day of November next. And it is ordered that this Order be inserted in the London Gazette, and be advertized in two English newspapers and in Galignani's Newspaper, published in Paris; and also that copies of this Order be affixed on the doors of all the churches and chapels in the town of Sunderland, and on the doors of the Royal Exchange, in the city of London: and it is ordered that a copy of this Order be left at the house of Madame Michord, in Paris.

Notice.—Mary Ann Thomas, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own showing.

SHARPE, FIELD, and JACKSON, 41, Bedford-row, Middlesex, Agents for Mark Lambert Jobling and John Flening, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Leitch and Kewney, of North Shields, Plaintiffs' Solicitors.
