

chant, the said Collar for the sale of Wine, and said Office for Registering and Granting Bets on Horse Racing, during such last period making Bills of Exchange payable at the Royal British Bank, Strand, Middlesex.

George John Stephenson De Magniac Rutherford, sued as George de M. Rutherford, and as G. de M. Rutherford, and as George Stephenson Rutherford, and known as George Rutherford, formerly of No. 53, Cambridge-street, Edgeware-road, then of Brompton-square, Brompton, then of Curls-cottage, New-road, Shepherds Bush, then of No. 67, Sydney-street, Brompton, then of No. 53, Cambridge-street aforesaid, then of No. 87, Gloucester-place, Kentish Town, then and late of No. 53, Lincoln's-inn-fields, Middlesex, following no trade, profession or calling.

William Heise, formerly of Brandon Barracks, County Cork, Ireland, then of No. 39, Ascot-street, Upper Chelsea, Middlesex, Physician and Surgeon, then as Sea Surgeon on board of ship on passage to India and back to England, then of No. 40, Ascot-street aforesaid, then of No. 77, Warwick-street, Pimlico, Physician and Surgeon, then and late of No. 50, Westbourne-street, Pimlico, all in Middlesex, in copartnership with John New, and carrying on business at No. 54A, Bond-street, Golden-square, Middlesex, as Surgeons, Chemists and Druggists, under the names and style of New and Company, Bachelor of Medicine, Master of Arts, Trinity College, Dublin, and Member of the College of Surgeons, London.

On Tuesday the 21st September 1852, at Ten o'Clock, before Mr. Commissioner Law.

Lodewyk Havekes, (sued with Thomas Terry), formerly of Boomsloot, afterwards of Viloveniers, Curgoral, both in the city of Amsterdam, in the kingdom of Holland, Carpenter and Builder, his Wife a Provision Dealer, then still of Viloveniers, Curgoral aforesaid, Provision Merchant, carrying on business with Johan Bernhard Eilers, afterwards of No. 24, Cannon-street, London, in copartnership with him and Thomas Terry, carrying on business as Provision Merchants, Cheese and Butter Factors, and General Merchants, then of No. 10, Cross-lane, Saint Mary-at-Hill Lower Thames-street, London, carrying on the same business with the said Thomas Terry and Johan Bernhard Eilers, under the names, firm, and style of Havekes and Terry, having a Store at No. 11, Nag's Head-court, Gracechurch-street, London, (the said Johan Bernhard Eilers carried on the business of Provision Merchant and Dealer in his own name, at Warmoes-street, in the city of Amsterdam, in the kingdom of Holland), and late residing at No. 16, Providence-row, Worship-street, Finsbury, Middlesex, carrying on business at No. 10, Cross-lane, Eastcheap, London, in copartnership with the said Johan Bernhard Eilers and Thomas Terry, as Provision Merchants, Cheese and Butter Factors, and General Merchants.

Thomas Terry, (sued with Lodewyk Havekes), formerly of No. 9, Huggin-lane, Wood-street, Cheapside, London, Commission Agent, residing in the Chalk-road, Islington, Middlesex, afterwards of No. 44, Cannon-street, London, Commission Merchant, (trading as Terry and Company), residing at No. 42, Brudenell-place, New North-road, Hoxton, Middlesex, then of Charlton-street, Somers-town, Middlesex, Provision Dealer, and of No. 44, Cannon-street aforesaid, Commission Merchant and General Agent, and Traveller to a Cheese and Butter Factor, then residing at No. 56, Goswell-road, Islington, Middlesex, Commission Agent, having an office and place of business at No. 24, Cannon-street, London, then still of No. 56, Goswell-road aforesaid, in copartnership with Johan Bernhard Eilers and Lodewyk Havekes, carrying on business as Provision Merchants, Cheese and Butter Factors, and General Merchants, at No. 10, Cross-lane, Saint Mary-at-Hill, Lower Thames-street, London, under the names, firm, and style, of Havekes and Terry, having a Store at No. 11, Nag's Head court, Gracechurch-street, London, (the said Johan Bernhard Eilers carried on the business of Provision Merchant and Dealer in his own name, at Warmoes-street, in the city of Amsterdam, in the kingdom of Holland), and late residing at No. 11, Cottage-place, City-road, Middlesex, carrying on business at No. 10, Cross-lane, Eastcheap, London, in copartnership with the said Johan Bernhard Eilers and Lodewyk Havekes, as Provision Merchants, Cheese and Butter Factors, and General Merchants.

Charles Somers, formerly of the Duke's Head Public-house, Highgate, Middlesex, Licensed Victualler, afterwards of No. 13, Ponsonby-terrace, Pimlico, out of business, then of the Chelsea Pensioner Public-house, Queen's-road West, Chelsea, Middlesex, Licensed Victualler, and late of No. 30, Paulton-square, Chelsea aforesaid, out of business or employ.

On Tuesday the 21st September 1852, at Ten o'Clock, before Mr. Commissioner Phillips.

David Williams, late of No. 21, Great Wine London, Fruiterer, Greengrocer, and Milkman.

John Crossley the younger, formerly of No. 8, Old Montague-street, Whitechapel, at the same time carrying on business at No. 24, Pleasant-row, Pelham-street, Mile-end New Town, Lard Refiner, Oil Manufacturer, and Melter, then of No. 8, Old Montague-street aforesaid, and carrying on business at No. 24, Pleasant-row, Pelham-street, Mile-end New Town aforesaid, Melter, and late of No. 8, Old Montague-street, Whitechapel aforesaid, all in Middlesex, out of business or employment.

John Mobbs (known by and using the names of John Smith and John Marsland, sued with James Dawson Green as John Smith, committed as John Smith), formerly of Gold-street, Northampton, Northamptonshire, Tailor and Draper, next of Caistor, near Peterborough, Northamptonshire, next of Ford View, near Lower Broughton, Manchester, Lancashire, next of Belfield-house, West Derby-road, Liverpool, Lancashire, next of Merton Lodge, Tivoli, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, also at same time and for a short time staying at Wick, near Worcester, Worcestershire, next of No. 119, Jermyn-street, Saint James's, Middlesex, next of Inver Villa, Hammer-smith New-road, Middlesex, next of Shirley, Southampton, next of Glen Cottage, Bittern, near Southampton, Hampshire, next staying at No. 2, Park-street, Bath, Somersetshire, next of No. 144, Moss-lane, Manchester, next of Southport, Lancashire, next of Grosvenor-street, Manchester aforesaid, next of No. 2, Park-parade, High Harrowgate, Yorkshire, next of No. 6, Tonbridge-place, New-road, Middlesex, next of Westbourne-grove, Bayswater, next of No. 14, Albert-place, Victoria-road, Kensington, also while of No. 14, Albert-place aforesaid, of No. 7, Selwood-place, Old Brompton, all in Middlesex, next a prisoner for debt in the Queen's Prison, Surrey, his wife residing at Southwark-bridge-road, Surrey, next of Tonbridge-place aforesaid, next of Saint Michael's-place, Brompton aforesaid, next of Saint Leonard's-place, next of the Crown Hotel, both in Slough, Buckinghamshire, next of Acacia Cottage, Twyford, Berkshire, and next and late of No. 4, Charlotte-street, Blackfriars'-road, Surrey, also at same time for a short time at No. 44, Southampton-buildings, Holborn, Middlesex, occasionally during the last six months lodging at and having his letters directed to the White Bear Hotel, Piccadilly, since leaving Northampton not in any trade, business, or profession, but during the whole time occasionally buying and selling horses and betting on horse races, and for a short time keeping a private Club-house at No. 2, Bennett-street, Saint James's, Middlesex, his wife now residing at No. 3, Portland-place, Borough-road, Southwark, Surrey.

On Wednesday the 22nd September 1852, at Ten o'Clock, before the Chief Commissioner.

George Porter, late of No. 1, Terrace, High-street, Kensington, Middlesex, Boot and Shoe Maker.

Frederic Farmer, formerly of the Earl of Effingham Public-house, Mile End-road, Licensed Victualler and Attorney's Clerk, then of the same place, Licensed Victualler, then of the same place, out of business and employ, then and late of No. 12, North-street, Jubilee-street, Mile End-gate, both in Middlesex, out of business and employ.

On Wednesday the 22nd September 1852, at Ten o'Clock, before Mr. Commissioner Law.

Alfred Wray Darling (known, sued, and committed as Alfred Darling only), formerly of No. 4, Hasker-street, Chelsea, and next and late of No. 4, Stanley-street, Chelsea, both in Middlesex.

Philip Smelt, formerly of the Bagnigge-wells Tavern, Bagnigge-wells-road, Clerkenwell, Middlesex, then of the Railway Terminus Tavern, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, then of the King's Arms, Little James-street, Bedford-row, Middlesex, then and late of Bright's Coffee-house, No. 89, Gray's-inn-lane, Clerkenwell, Middlesex, following no trade, profession, or calling.

On Wednesday the 22nd September 1852, at Ten o'Clock, before Mr. Commissioner Phillips.

Hockley Frederick Wood, formerly of Gravel-hill, Swanscomb, Kent, then of No. 16, Clarendon-road Villas, Kensington Park, Notting Hill, Middlesex, having offices first at No. 14, Old Jewry-chambers, Old Jewry, and then at No. 73, Basinghall-street, both in London, and then and late of No. 11, Crescent-terrace, Millbank, Middlesex, during part of such last-named period, of Calais, France, having offices at No. 73, Basinghall-street aforesaid, during all such period Attorney at Law, formerly Chief Bailiff of the Small Debts' Court, London.