Manchester and Salford Education Bill.
(For promoting Education in the boroughs of Manchester and Salford, and in the contiguous townships of Pendleton, Pendlebury, and Broughton, or some of them.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to promote education in the municipal boroughs of Manchester and Salford, and in the contiguous townships of Pendleton, Pendlebury, and Broughton, or some or one of them, in the county of Lancaster; and for such purpose it is proposed to constitute committees out of the town councils of the said boroughs respectively, and, under certain circumstances, out of the guardians of the poor elected or appointed to represent such respective townships at the board of guardians of the union in which such respective townships are included; and to invest such respective committees with such powers as may be found expedient for carrying the objects of the said intended Act into execution; and to provide additional schools within the said boroughs and townships respectively; and also to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any school now existing, or hereafter to be established, within the said boroughs and townships respectively, may be admitted to participate in the benefits of the said intended Act; and to make provision in certain cases for preventing a lapse or failure in the trustees or managing body of any school admitted, or proposed to be admitted, to the benefits of the said intended Act; and to provide for the free admission of scholars into all or any of the present or future schools within the said boroughs and townships respectively, and to make regulations connected with the course or system of education to be adopted in such respective schools; and also to provide for the erection, regulation, and management of new schools; and in certain cases, for the adaptation, repair, maintenance, cleaning, warming, and ventilation of the school-rooms now existing, or hereafter to be erected, within the said boroughs and townships respectively, or of any room used as a school-room; and for selling, letting, or exchanging any of such schools or school-rooms, and for providing books, stationery, and other articles and things to be used in and for such schools respectively; and for the payment of the teachers therein; and also to provide for the due inspection of all or any of such schools, or of any other schools within the said boroughs and townships respectively, by government or local inspectors, and for the appointment of local inspectors, for the purposes to be defined in the said intended Act, and for the payment of fees or salaries to any such inspectors.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act, to defray the expenses in any way relating to the said intended Act, and of carrying the same into execution, out of or by means of the poor-rates from time to time assessed and levied within the said boroughs and townships respectively, or by means of a separate rate, or separate rates, to be levied on the property within such boroughs and townships respectively, for the time being, liable to be assessed to the poor-rate, and to make all such other provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying the objects and purposes of the said intended Act into execution.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this twenty-eighth day of October 1852.
