

to the perpetual curacy or parish church of Blurton aforesaid, or to the incumbent thereof, is situate partly in that portion of the said parish of Blurton remaining after such division thereof as aforesaid, and partly in the said distinct and separate parish of Normacot; and that it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that all such glebe land should, notwithstanding such division as aforesaid, continue as at present to belong to the said perpetual curacy or parish church of Blurton, or to the perpetual curate or incumbent thereof for the time being, but that such glebe land will be charged with the payment thereof of forty-five pounds per annum, in favour of the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said parish and parish church of Normacot aforesaid, under the powers and authorities contained in the eighth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes.'

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that no tithes or moduses will arise or accrue to either of the incumbents of the said parishes of Blurton and Normacot.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the said perpetual curacy or parish church of Blurton is also endowed with, and that the incumbent thereof for the time being is in the receipt of certain interest or dividends from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, amounting to about two hundred and seventy pounds per annum; and which it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient should continue to belong to the said perpetual curacy or parish church of Blurton aforesaid, or to the incumbent thereof for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the said perpetual curate of Normacot for the time being will be in the receipt of the interest or dividends arising from the sum of one thousand pounds, or thereabouts, which is about to be paid over to and held in trust by the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the said parish church of Normacot, or for the incumbent thereof for the time being, and also that a parsonage house, of the estimated value of eight hundred pounds, is about to be given and permanently annexed by the Duke of Sutherland to such parish church of Normacot, for the use and enjoyment of the incumbent thereof for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it is estimated that the annual amount of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues which will arise or accrue to the incumbent of the said parish church of Blurton will be about three pounds, and to the incumbent of Normacot, about twelve shillings.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese, and of the Most Noble George Granville, Duke and Earl of Sutherland, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Patron of the said parish church of Blurton; have been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections firstly and secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the recommendations contained in the said representation be forthwith carried into effect, and that the formation, as therein recommended, of a distinct and separate parish, to be called the distinct and separate parish of Normacot, be forthwith made and carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
