

To empower persons to be named in the said Act, or to be appointed under the authority thereof, to adjust and determine claims in, to, or over the said forest and purlieus, or any part or parts thereof.

To set out and allot the residue of the said forest as and for a common field, or common fields, or sheep walk, or sheep walks, for the exclusive pasturage of the commonable cattle and sheep of persons having rights of common of pasture and sheep walk respectively, over the said forest.

To set out roads and ways upon, through, and over the said forest and purlieus, and (with the consent of the owners) through and over ancient inclosures adjoining or near to the said forest.

To stop up all or some of the existing roads, ways, paths, or passages leading into, through, or over the said forest and purlieus.

To set out and allot a certain portion, or certain portions of the said forest, as a site or sites for a church or chapel, with a burial ground to be annexed thereto; and also a site for a parsonage house and garden for the incumbent, for the time being, of the said church or chapel.

And it is also proposed to introduce provisions in the said Bill—

To enable incapacitated bodies or persons to sell or exchange allotments, and to give or receive ancient inclosures in the forest and purlieus, and parishes adjoining the same, in exchange for allotments, and also to pay or receive money for equalizing exchanges.

To provide for the construction and future maintenance and repair of roads or ways to be set out as before mentioned.

To provide for the parochialization of the extra-parochial portion or portions of the said forest, either for all purposes, or for all ecclesiastical purposes only, and with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, the patron or patrons, and the incumbent or incumbents for the time being, to annex, for ecclesiastical purposes, portions of the said forest to existing parishes, or portions of existing parishes to other existing parishes, or to the proposed new parish, or ecclesiastical district, and for all purposes, with the further consent of the owners of two-thirds of the property in the said parishes.—Dated this first day of November 1852.

By order of the Right Honourable Thomas Francis Kennedy, the Commissioner in charge of Her Majesty's Forests.

English and Australian Copper Company.
(Power to purchase certain Letters Patent, and to grant Additional Powers to the Company.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the English and Australian Copper Company to become the purchasers of the following Letters Patent; that is to say: Letters Patent, bearing date at Westminster, on or about the 20th day of July 1846, granting unto James Napier, of Shacklewell, in the county of Middlesex, Operative Chemist, his executors, administrators, and assigns, a certain invention for improving the method of smelting copper and other ores within England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, during the term of 14 years from the date of the said Letters Patent.

Certain other Letters Patent, bearing date on or about the 2nd day of March 1847, granting unto the said James Napier, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for certain other inventions for improvements in smelting copper and other ores within England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, during the term of 14 years from the date of the said Letters Patent.

Certain other Letters Patent, bearing date on or about the 4th day of March 1852, granting unto Alfred Trueman, of Swansea, Manager of Copper Smelting Works, and John Cameron, of Loughor, Chemist, their executors, administrators, and assigns, for a discovery of improvements in obtaining copper from ores within England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and in all Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said Letters Patent; and also such other Letters Patent which now are or may hereafter be granted in respect of any improvements in or upon, or addition to, the inventions mentioned in the said several Letters Patent, or which shall in some way relate to or be founded thereon, for the purpose of manufacturing copper or the materials used in such manufacture; and also to enable all persons in whom any partial or other interest or interests, license or licenses, in or under the said several Letters Patent, or any or either of them, are or is or shall be vested, to sell and assign the same unto the said Company, and to enable the said Company to purchase and hold the same, and also to confirm the said several Letters Patent, and to empower the said Company to make, use, and exercise such inventions and improvements, and to grant licenses to use such inventions as aforesaid, and also to enable the Company to sell or otherwise dispose of the privileges granted by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, or any of them, or any part thereof, or interest therein respectively.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which the patentees or grantees named in such several Letters Patent, their executors, administrators, or assigns, or any other person or persons, now hath or have in, under, or in reference to the said Letters Patent, and to confer the same or similar rights and privileges upon the said Company, and also to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to enable the Company to raise a larger sum of money by shares and on loan than they are at present authorized to raise, and also to incorporate and grant further powers to such Company, the better to enable them to carry on the undertaking for which they are established; also to enable the Company to purchase and hold lands for the purposes of such undertaking.

And it is also intended to insert in such Bill such powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Bills of a similar nature, and such other powers and provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill as it will be introduced into the House of Commons, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of that House, on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this 5th day of November 1852.
