

of West Ham and East Ham, but that the first right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid should be exercised by the vicar of West Ham aforesaid.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Stratford Marsh, in the said parish of West Ham, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;' and in the third section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels, augmented by the governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority whatever in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Stratford Marsh,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary commences at Channelsea Bridge, where the Stratford road crosses the said river, and proceeds in a north and north-westerly direction along the middle of the Channelsea River, to the point where it meets the River Lea, thence in a southerly direction along the middle of the River Lea, to a point parallel to the north front of the Three Mills, thence easterly along the north front of the said mills to the middle of the Three Mills Wall River, and thence northerly along the middle of the said river to the Harrow Bridge, in the Stratford Road, thence north-easterly along the middle of the said road to the Abbey-lane, thence south-easterly along the middle of the said lane to the Channelsea River, and thence northerly along the middle of the said river to the point where the district commences at Channelsea Bridge, as the same is more particularly delineated and described on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon tinted light green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Christ Church, at Stratford Marsh aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the said Charles James, Bishop of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the maps or plans thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church at Forest Gate, be carried into effect; and also that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the said church at Stratford Marsh be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churches, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect; agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of London.
