

then along the western, southern, and eastern fences of that field and the southern fence of No. 395, and along the western and southern fences of No. 1553 to the boundary line of the said parish of Nuthurst, as the said consolidated chapelry of Southwater is more particularly delineated on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink and purple.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester; of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of the diocese of Canterbury, Patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Horsham; and of the Reverend Leveson Vernon Harcourt, of West Dean House, in the county of Sussex, Master of Arts, and the Honourable Caroline Mary Vernon Harcourt, his Wife, Patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Shipley, have been severally obtained to the hereinbefore proposed formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Southwater, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said commissioners beg leave further to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and Leveson Vernon Harcourt, and the Honourable Caroline Mary Vernon Harcourt, his Wife, as such respective Patrons, as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as herein-after mentioned, and of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the Holy Innocents, at Southwater aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Horsham.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation of certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Horsham and Shipley into one consolidated chapelry, to be called "The Consolidated Chapelry of Southwater," be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the Holy Innocents, at Southwater, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

ELECTION and INVESTITURE of the DUKE OF NORTHUMBERLAND and the MARQUESS OF LONDONDERRY.

A Chapter of this Most Noble Order having been summoned for this day, at two o'clock, the Knights Companions, hereafter named, assembled in St. George's Hall, viz. :

The Marquess of Exeter, the Marquess of Salisbury, the Duke of Cleveland, the Marquess Camden, the Duke of Bedford, the Earl of Clarendon, and Earl Fitzwilliam, attended by the following Officers, viz. :

The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; Sir Charles George Young, Knt., Garter; and Sir Augustus William James Clifford, Bart., Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

The Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and His Serene Highness the Prince of Leiningen, having passed into the Throne-room) they proceeded, together with the Officers of the Order, through the Grand Reception-room into the Throne-room.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure that the vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of St. George, at Windsor, be filled; whereupon the Most Noble Algernon Duke of Northumberland was introduced to the Sovereign by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted with the sword of state; when His Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election; and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor were presented by him to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble Algernon Duke of Northumberland had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Earl of Clarendon and Earl Fitzwilliam, the two junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod. The Duke of Northumberland, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter, on his knee, presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, buckled it on his Grace's left leg; the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband and George; and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Grace's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Duke then again kissed Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the Chancellor, having collected the suffrages, presented them to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly did declare, that the Most Honourable Charles William, Marquess of Londonderry, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, had been duly elected a Knight of this Most Noble Order; whereupon his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter, Ribband, and George, with the like ceremonies.

The chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights
