To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Callington, in the county of Cornwall;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Callington, in the county of Cornwall, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons:

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held, after public notice in that behalf, in the said parish of Callington, on Thursday the thirtieth day of September last, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order under their seal of office, directing that the Act, passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict. c. 57), intituled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to, and put in force within this parish, as regards the providing a Vestry Room, or suitable Buildings for the purpose of holding Vestries or other Meetings for the transaction of the business of or relating to this parish.”

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct, that so much of the said Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, as relates to the providing of a room or suitable building, for the purpose of holding any vestry or other meetings, for the transaction of any business of or relating to the said parish, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Callington.

And we hereby order and direct, that a copy of this order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

M. T. Baines, President.

Courtenay, Secretary.

Northamptonshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of Lieutenancy of the county of Northampton, will be held at the Grand Jury Room adjoining the County Hall, in the town of Northampton, on Friday the 18th day of February next, at half past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of proceeding to put in execution the Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Militia.

Henry Philip Markham, Clerk to the General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

Northampton, January 29, 1853.

London and South-Western Railway.

(Basingstoke and Salisbury line).

(Amendment of Acts; Extension or Revival of Powers).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session thereof, for leave to introduce a petition for a Bill, to amend “The London and South Western Railway Company’s Basingstoke and Salisbury Extension Act, 1846,” and “The London and South Western Extension of Powers Act, 1849,” or one of those Acts, and to extend the period limited, and the powers conferred by those Acts, or either of them, for the completion of the railway from Basingstoke to Salisbury, by those Acts or one of them authorized, and to revive the powers of the London and South Western Railway Company in reference thereto, or to some part or parts thereof, by those Acts, or either of them, conferred, and to confer further powers upon the said Company with reference to the acquisition of lands for the purposes of the said railway, and also with reference to the execution thereof, and to remove any doubts as to the rights of the said Company to acquire or hold any lands which may be necessary for the purposes of the said railway. And it is also intended by the said bill to confer upon the said Company powers for the purchase, taking and holding of lands for the purposes aforesaid, and to confer upon all persons and corporations powers of selling and conveying lands to the said Company for the purposes aforesaid, and to vary and extinguish all rights or privileges which would in any manner interfere with or prevent the carrying into effect of all or any of the purposes aforesaid. And it is also intended by the said bill (so far as may be necessary for the purposes thereof) to amend the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions, of the several acts following, relating to the London and South Western Railway Company (that is to say) local and personal Acts: 4 and 5 William IV.,
