

full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the monies which shall from time to time be received by us, by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the said lease, or in receiving such monies) shall be invested in the three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities; and the dividends arising therefrom shall be from time to time invested in like manner, until such annuities, with the accumulations thereon, shall produce such a sum as shall appear to us, and to the patron for the time being of the said Rectory of Camborne, to be sufficient to provide a parsonage house for the Incumbent of the District of Penponds, within the said parish; and that such parsonage house shall be erected according to plans and specifications to be approved by us and the patron for the time being of the said rectory; and that, after such specific appropriation, all the remaining stock and monies, and the monies to be received in future by us under the said lease, shall, after deducting all costs, charges, and expenses incident to the receipt, investment, or disbursement of the said monies, be from time to time applied towards augmenting the income of the incumbent of the district of Penponds for the time being, or towards making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Camborne (including the district of Penponds, and any other district which may now exist or may hereafter be formed out of the said parish), in such manner as we, with the consent of the patron thereof for the time being, may recommend in any future scheme, to be ratified by your Majesty in Council.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament; but that no such measure shall be proposed without the consent of the patron for the time being of the Rectory of Camborne aforesaid.”

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Maesty's reign, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the income of the Archbishop of York.

“Whereas the Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, hath, with a view to the regulation of his income, according to the provisions of the said Act, entered into an agreement with us in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“Agreement made this twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, between the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the one part, and the Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, of the other part.

“Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ after reciting that Her Majesty had issued a commission to certain persons therein named to inquire, amongst other things, whether any and what improvement could be made in the existing law and practice relating to the incomes of archbishops and bishops, so as to secure to them respectively fixed instead of fluctuating annual incomes, and that it was expedient that until the said Commissioners should have made their report and Parliament should have determined upon some permanent mode of effecting the object last aforesaid, temporary arrangements should be made for that purpose; it was enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions of the therein first-recited Act, and any Order or Orders of Her Majesty in Council founded thereon relating to or providing for the payment to or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of fixed annual sums, it should be lawful, by the authority and in the manner by and in which the arrangements for carrying into effect the recommendations in the said Act recited might then be made (that is to say, by a scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, confirmed and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council), so to regulate from time to time the amounts, times, modes, and conditions of payments to be made to or by the said Commissioners as the case might be, by or to any archbishop or bishop who should have succeeded to a see upon any avoidance thereof happening after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, or any other archbishop or bishop who might signify his willingness to accept such annual income as thereafter mentioned in lieu of his present income, as to secure to every such archbishop or bishop the annual income named for the archbishop or bishop of his see, in the same or any other Act then in force, or in any Order of Her Majesty in Council duly made and published, and no more:

“And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette, it
