FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1853.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 17, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, 9th March next, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure that presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentation to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levee, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to the Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the arrangements of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and diocese of Lichfield," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect the arrangements of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, and diocese of Lichfield,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing us to contribute towards the reparation of the church of Saint Peter's, Wolverhampton:

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for us, under the authority therein mentioned (that is to say, a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council), to allow and contribute at any time or times after the passing of the same Act, out of the common fund, vested in us by the Acts therein recited, such sum or sums of money as shall be deemed by us reasonable and necessary towards the costs, charges, and expenses to be incurred in the necessary reparation of the said church of Saint Peter's, Wolverhampton:

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us by the estimate of a competent architect, that in order to complete the necessary reparation of the said church, according to certain plans and specifications, prepared after a careful survey of the said church, and approved by us, the sum of six thousand pounds, or thereabouts, will be required:

"And whereas it has been resolved, at a public meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Wolverhampton and others, to raise a subscription towards carrying into effect such reparation of the said church, as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we be authorized and empowered to contribute and pay out of the said common fund as aforesaid; to such persons at such times and in such manner as shall be deemed by us to be most
