

expedient, such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of three thousand pounds, as together with any other sum or sums of equal amount therewith, which may be so subscribed as aforesaid, shall be necessary for effecting the reparation of the said church, according to such plans and specifications as aforesaid :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing therein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of February, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,” and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,” or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; viz.:

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated chapel situate at Bradshaw, in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,’ and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,’ or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should comprise the whole of the township of Bradshaw and certain portions of the townships of Turton and Harwood, and that it should be called ‘ The District Chapelry of Bradshaw,’ and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: to commence near Walk Mill, at the point where the townships of Harwood, Turton and Tong unite, and to proceed thence, in an easterly direction, along the footpath or bridle-way, which passes by a farmhouse situated on the school land called Bottom of the Moor, to Longsight-lane, and thence, north-easterly, up the centre of Longsight-lane, to the Three Lane Ends, at the Wesleyan school, thence, westerly along the centre of the Harwood-road, to the Three Lane Ends at Lee Gate Hillock, thence, along the centre of the Raikes-road, easterly, to the point, near Old Smithy, where the townships of Bradshaw, Harwood, and Tottington Lower End unite, thence, north-westerly, westerly, and southerly, along the boundary of the township of Bradshaw to where the rivulet from the well at Ousel Nest, in Turton township, falls into Bradshaw brook, thence, westerly, up and along the said rivulet to the said well, thence, along the footpath from the said well to the Turton-road, and along the centre of the said Turton-road, southerly, to the point where it is met by Haydock-lane, thence, westerly, along the centre of Haydock-lane, as far as the western side of Haydock's Farm Buildings, and from such point, in a straight line, in a southerly direction, to the south-easterly side of the premises called the Volunteer Inn, in the Bury-road, and, entering that road, the boundary line then proceeds, south-easterly, along the same as far as Bertinshaw-road, and then proceeds, south-westerly, along the middle of the latter road, as far as the river Eagley, (such line of boundary, from Haydock's Farm Buildings to the river Eagley, being the boundary line of Walmsley Chapelry District,) thence, along the said river Eagley, to the point where the townships of Sharples, Turton, and Tong unite, thence, easterly, along the boundary of the townships of Turton and Tong, to the point first mentioned, near Walk Mill, where the townships of Harwood, Turton, and Tong unite, as such District Chapelry of Bradshaw is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said chapel, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent of such chapel for the time being.

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect