

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1853.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of March, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of King's Norton, in the county and diocese of Worcester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Moseley, in the said parish of King's Norton, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Moseley,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district is bounded on the west by the parishes of Northfield and Edgbaston, as far as Edgbaston-lane, on the north by part of the parish of King's Norton, from which the said district chapelry is separated by a line proceeding easterly along the middle of Edgbaston-lane, as far as the turnpike-road, from Birmingham to Alcester, and then turning northerly proceeds up the middle of that road until it reaches a new road, made through fields Nos. 3912 and 3913 on the tithe apportionment map of the parish of King's Norton, when it takes an easterly and southerly course along the middle of the said new road as far as the fence which divides field No. 3919 from fields Nos. 3916 and 3921, on the said map, and then along such fence until it meets the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, when it crosses over that railway to the fence, which divides fields Nos. 3942 and 3948, from fields Nos. 3941 and 3947, on the said map, when it proceeds along that fence until it arrives at Lady Pool-lane, and then crosses that lane over to the fence dividing fields Nos. 4037, 4036, 4034, and 4031 from fields Nos. 4039, 4040, 4064, and 4065, on the said map, and then proceeds along such fence easterly until it arrives at Stony-lane when it crosses such lane to the boundary line which separates the parish of King's Norton, from the parish of Yardley, the said district chapelry is then bounded on the east by the said parish of Yardley, as far as a road or lane called the Haunch-lane, numbered 3089 on the said map, and on the south is bounded by other part of the said parish of King's Norton, from which the said district chapelry is separated by a line proceeding westerly along the middle of the said lane called the Haunch-lane, until such lane meets another lane No. 3078, on the said map, and then along the middle of such last-mentioned lane until it enters the turnpike-road to Alcester, at a place called Alcester-lanes-end, it then crosses over such turnpike-road, and proceeds in a south-westerly direction, along the middle of the lane called King's Arms-lane, No. 2970 on the said map, and then proceeds along such lane south-westerly, until it reaches another lane, No. 2936 on the said map, then in a northerly direction up the middle of that lane to another lane called Black-lane, No. 2858 on the said map, then along the middle of that lane, south-westerly, until it meets a lane or fore-drove, No. 2805 on the said map, leading towards Bullie's-barn and cottage, it then proceeds along such lane or fore-drove, crossing the railway at or near a mile post marked G 48 on one face, and B 5 on the