

exercise and execution of the power and authority given by the hereinbefore recited Act of Parliament, and of every other power or authority in anywise in this behalf enabling, and with the consent of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, testified by their execution hereof, he, the said Alfred, Lord Bishop of Llandaff, doth hereby agree to sell, and the said Frederick Romilly doth hereby agree to purchase, at or for the price of one thousand two hundred pounds, the fee simple and inheritance in possession of and in all that the said rent-charge or annual sum of forty-nine pounds, fourteen shillings, and five pence, and all the right, title, and interest of the said Lord Bishop and his successors therein and thereto, free from all incumbrances created or occasioned by the said Lord Bishop, but subject to the land tax and to all other impositions and obligations now legally charged thereon; and it is hereby further agreed as follows; that is to say: that the said sum of one thousand two hundred pounds shall be paid to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall be applied by them, with the consent of the said Bishop, as soon as conveniently may be, in the purchase of freehold lands, tenements, and hereditaments convenient to be held with the episcopal residence and estates now belonging to the said see of Llandaff, or with any part thereof. That the said Frederick Romilly shall not require or be entitled to any evidence of the title of the said Lord Bishop to the said rent-charge, such title being admitted; and that this agreement, and every thing herein contained, shall be subject to the approval of Her Majesty in Council. And the said Commissioners hereby agree forthwith to prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme recommending and proposing that Her Majesty should approve and ratify the same accordingly, and should order and direct that the same shall take effect, and that the said rent-charge shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any Order to be made by Her Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme, be transferred to and vested absolutely in the said Frederick Romilly, his heirs and assigns, subject as aforesaid immediately after any such Order in Council shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, and after the said Frederick Romilly shall have paid to the Treasurers of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners the said sum of one thousand two hundred pounds.

“ In witness whereof the said Lord Bishop hath hereunto set his hand and episcopal seal, and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners have hereunto set their common seal, and the said Frederick Romilly hath hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

“ ‘ A. Llandaff.’ ”

“ ‘ Fredk. Romilly.’ ”

“ Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, that the said agreement be approved and ratified by your Majesty in Council, so that the same shall take effect, and that the said rent-charge shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be transferred to and vested absolutely in the said Frederick Romilly, his heirs and assigns, immediately after any such Order in Council shall have been duly gazetted, and after the said Frederick Romilly shall have paid to our treasurers the sum of twelve hundred pounds.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.
