“ And whereas by a scheme duly prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council, on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly gazetted, the district of Baldhu was duly constituted out of the parishes of Kenwyn and Kca, and the district of Chace-water, in the said county of Cornwall, and diocese of Exeter :

“ And whereas by the said scheme and Order the right of patronage of the said district and the nomination of the minister thereof, for the first such nomination, was, for the consideration therein mentioned, assigned to and vested in the Right Honourable George Henry Earl of Falmouth, since deceased :

“ And whereas, on the passing of the said scheme, it was agreed by us to recommend that the right of patronage of the said district and the nomination of the minister thereof should be assigned in perpetuity to the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, and his heirs, upon condition of his providing a fit church for such district, and also a repairing fund for such church :

“ And whereas a church has since been provided within the said district by the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, and such church has been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church of the said district for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district has accordingly become, under the provisions of the said Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes :

“ And whereas the said agreement has not yet been carried into effect :

“ And whereas a sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been provided by the Right Honourable Evelyn Viscount Falmouth, the heir-at-law, of the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth, to be applied, in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in pursuance of our said agreement, and in consideration of the premises, the patronage of the said new parish should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said new parish of Baldhu, and the nomination of the perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said Evelyn Viscount Falmouth, and his heirs for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
