

session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Saint Chad and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said two parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Bicton, in the said parish of Saint Chad, Shrewsbury, under and by virtue of the power and authority for such purpose, contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Bicton,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The consolidated chapelry of Bicton is bounded on the north-west, north, and north-east, by the river Severn; on the south-east, by the parish of Saint Julian, Shrewsbury, and the township of Shelton and Oxon, and the township of Woodcott and Horton, in the said parish of Saint Chad, Shrewsbury; on the south, by part of the said township of Woodcott and Horton, and by the parish of Pontesbury; and on the south-west, by the parish of Ford, which said consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured pink and green.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and also the consent of the Right Honourable Robert Monsey, Baron Cranworth, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (Patron, in right of the Crown, of the parish churches of the said parishes of Saint Chad and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury), have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Bicton, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that the said Robert Monsey, Baron Cranworth, as such Patron as aforesaid, in right of the Crown, of the said parish churches of Saint Chad and Saint Alkmund, Shrewsbury, is willing, and has agreed, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and also of the said John Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Bicton aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of the said parish of Saint Chad, Shrewsbury.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapelry be accordingly made, and that the agreement in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Bicton, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent in Majesty Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," as enlarged and extended by the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the consolidated chapelry of Highgate, the parish of Saint Pancras, and the district chapelry of Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry of Highgate, the said parish of Saint Pancras, and the said district chapelry of Kentish Town, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Brookfield, in the said consolidated chapelry of Highgate, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' as enlarged and extended by the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act of Parliament passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts,' and that the same should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Brookfield, Highgate Rise,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: to commence in Maiden-lane, at the eastern extremity of a certain
