"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Watford and of Saint Stephen, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said two parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Leavesden, in the said parish of Watford, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'the Consolidated Chapelry of 'Leavesden,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing at a lane in the said parish of Watford leading out of the Leavesden Green-road, continuing along the said lane for the space of seventy-three yards or thereabouts, until it reaches Rushey Croft, No. 855, on the plan to the Tithe Commutation Award for the said parish of Watford, and continues along the said lane adjoining Rushey Croft and Long Spring, until it comes to the western corner of Long Spring; then leaving the said lane and turning south-east, continues along the south-western boundary of Long Spring, being No. 845 on the said plan, until it reaches the turnpike-road leading from Rickmansworth to Saint Albans; then turning to the north,

"That the consents of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, of the Right Honourable Arthur Algernon Earl of Essex, Patron (as tenant for life of, but not for the next presentation to) the parish church of the said parish of Watford, of Richard James, of Ash Lodge, Saint John's Wood, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, Patron (for the next presentation only of or to the said parish church of Watford), and of the Reverend Marcus Richard Southwell, Master of Arts, patron (in his own right) of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Stephen, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Leavesden, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Arthur Algernon Earl of Essex, Richard James and Marcus Richard Southwell, as such respective patrons as aforesaid (testified as aforesaid), with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said George, Bishop of Rochester, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church called All Saints Church, at Leavesden aforesaid, should, for the first turn or right of presentation and appointment that may arise, be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by Arthur Currie, of the Elms, in the said county of Hertford, Esquire, and that every subsequent presentation and appointment should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the vicar for the time being, of the said parish church of Watford.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed formation into one consolidated chapel for the consecrated church of All Saints, at Leavesden, in the parish of Watford, be accordingly made, and that the agreement in the said representation mentioned and contained in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.
