PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to enable Her Majesty to abolish, otherwise than by treaty, on condition of reciprocity, differential duties on foreign ships," it is provided that where it shall appear to Her Majesty, that by the law or regulations of any Foreign Power, the trade and shipping of Great Britain in the ports of such Foreign Power, have been placed upon the same footing as the trade and shipping of such Foreign Power, either absolutely or on condition of equal or like benefits being conceded to the vessels of such Foreign Power in the ports of Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order to be by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and to be published in the London Gazette, to order and declare that the trade and shipping of such Foreign Power, shall have the benefit of the provisions of the said Act.

At the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of October, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the “further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of the Trinity House, Deptford Strond, to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith,” it was enacted that certain rates and prices should be paid by the owners, masters, or agents of vessels passing and repassing in the River of Thames, for ballast supplied to them by the Corporation of the Trinity House;

And whereas the said Trinity House have, under the said recited Act, been in the habit of supplying ballast in the manner, and on the terms therein provided; but have not been in the habit of placing the same on board vessels, or of unloading the same therefrom;

And whereas by the Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853, it is provided that, if in addition to the duties hitherto performed in consideration of the said ballastage rates received under the said recited Act, the Trinity House, at the request or with the consent of the owners or masters of, or agents for, any ships, undertake to place ballast on board thereof, or to unload ballast therefrom, they shall be entitled to charge for such additional duties such reasonable additional charge per ton for ballast so placed on board, or unladen, as Her Majesty, by Order in Council, may from time to time approve;

And whereas the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House have submitted the following scale of rates, as rates which may properly be established and paid to the said Trinity House by the owners or masters of, or agents for, any ships who may be desirous that the Trinity House should undertake to place ballast on board, or unload it from such ships, in addition to the rates already payable for placing the ballast alongside the same, viz.:

For vessels having ports, 4d. (four pence) for every ton of ballast placed on board or unladen;

For vessels not having ports, 6½d. (sixpence and one half-penny) for every ton of ballast placed on board or unladen;

And whereas such scale of rates appears to be proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of the said scale of rates so submitted as aforesaid.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of October, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Dean of the cathedral church of Chichester, for the property belonging to him as such Dean.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said deanery will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said deanery become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required :

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any dean of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such dignitary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments :

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the very Reverend George Chandler, Doctor of Civil Law, the present Dean of the cathedral church of Chichester, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council :

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said George Chandler, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), now belonging to the said George Chandler, as such Dean as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said George Chandler to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said George Chandler, during the term of his natural life, the annual sum of three hundred and ninety pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the fifth day February and the fifth day of August; and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the fifth day of February next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have been, or shall be granted or made by the said George Chandler; and that if the decease of the said George Chandler shall happen on any other day than one of the said two half-yearly days of payment, then a proportionate sum only shall be paid to the representatives of the said George Chandler :

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

missioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to connect, by means of a tunnel, or partly by tunnel and partly by open cutting, and all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Devonport and Steam Factory Yard at Keyham, which said work will commence within and near to the southern boundary-wall of the said steam factory yard, and will terminate within the northern boundary wall of the said dock yard, and will be wholly situate within the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to confer power upon the said Commissioners to purchase, by compulsion and otherwise, lands, houses, and hereditaments, and all rights and privileges which may be required for the purposes aforesaid; and also to lay down and use any railway or railways along the said tunnel and cutting from time to time, or at any time, if they shall think fit; and also to stop up, divert, or otherwise alter, either temporarily or permanently, all highways, sewers, drains, waters, watercourses, pipes, ways, and paths, which may in anywise interfere with the execution of the said works or the purposes of the said intended Act.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to confer power upon the said Commissioners to purchase, by compulsion and otherwise, the fee simple of all such parts of Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Devonport the fee simple of which is not now absolutely vested in Her Majesty, or in the said Commissioners, in trust, for Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, for the public service, and also of certain other lands outside of and on the south side of the said Keyham Steam Factory Yard, and the free use in perpetuity of a certain roadway or passage, for all foot-passengers and horses, carts, and carriages whatsoever, which roadway or passage adjoins the outer wall of the said dock yard on the north, south, and east sides thereof, and known by the names following; that is to say: North Corner, Holman's-buildings, Queen-street, Dock-wall-street, James-street, and Mutton Cove, and extends in length about three thousand eight hundred feet, and in width from the said dock yard wall thirty feet.

passages are situate in the said parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon.

And it is also proposed to confer power upon the said Commissioners to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges whatsoever in any manner connected with any of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments to be purchased under the authority of the said intended Act; and also to sell, exchange, or let any part of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, if and whenever they may deem it expedient so to do.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act, so far as may be necessary for the purposes and objects thereof, to amend the several Acts following, or some of them; that is to say: the Acts 30th George 3rd, cap. 61; 33rd George 3rd, cap. 85; and (local and personal Acts) 54th George 3rd, cap. 172; and 16th Victoria, cap. 12.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended tunnel and open cutting, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office, in the Castle at Exeter, on or before the thirtieth day of November, in the present year; and that, on or before the same day, a copy of the said plans and sections, and book of reference, and Gazette notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid, at his residence.
