CHARITY COMMISSION. November, 1853.

WITH the view of insuring the regular keeping and delivery of the accounts of charities according to the provisions of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales request the particular attention of all trustees, and other persons acting in the administration of charities, to the following section of the Act:—

16 and 17 Vic., c. 137.

SEC. 61. "The trustees or persons acting in the administration of every charity shall in books to be kept by them for that purpose, regularly enter or cause to be entered full and true accounts of all money received and paid respectively on account of such charity,

"And on or before the twenty-fifth day of March in every year, or on or before such other day as shall or may be fixed and appointed for that purpose by the said Board, shall cause a statement in writing to be made of the income and revenues, whether actually paid or then due, and the actual receipts and expenditure of such charity for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, or on some other convenient day to be fixed and appointed for that purpose by the said Board, and also a balance-sheet containing a clear statement of the balance of such account, which statement and balance-sheet respectively shall be certified under the hand of some one or more of such trustees or persons (and audited by the auditor of such charity, if any there be),

"And as to every charity whose gross annual income for the time being shall not exceed thirty pounds, every such statement and balance-sheet respectively, or a duplicate or true copy thereof respectively, shall be delivered or sent by such trustees or persons free of charge to the Clerk of the County Court, or some one of the County Courts (if more than one) to whose jurisdiction such charity may be subject under this Act (in case such charity be subject to the jurisdiction of any County Court under this Act), or if such charity be not subject to the jurisdiction of any County Court, then to the Clerk of the County Court for the district or any one of the districts (if more than one) wherein or nearest adjoining whereto, such charity is established, or the property thereof (in whole or in part) is situate or administered and distributed,

"And as to every charity whose gross annual income for the time being shall exceed thirty pounds, every such statement and balance-sheet, or a duplicate or true copy thereof respectively (unless the said Board shall otherwise direct), shall be delivered or sent free of charge to the Clerk of the Peace for the county or the division of the county, or some one of the counties or divisions of counties (if more than one) in which the charity is established, or the property thereof is wholly or partially situated or administered and distributed,

"And every such statement and balance-sheet, or a duplicate or true copy thereof respectively, shall be kept and registered without fee or reward by the Registrar of County Court Judgments, or the Clerk of such County Court, and the Clerk of the Peace of such county, or division respectively, and shall be open to the inspection of all persons, at all seasonable hours, on payment of the sum of one shilling to the registrar or clerk for every such inspection; and any person may require and have a copy of any such statement and balance-sheet, or of any part thereof, paying therefor to such registrar or clerk, after the rate of twopence for every seventy-two words or figures,

"And a duplicate or copy of every such statement and balance-sheet to be made according to the foregoing provision, so certified and audited as aforesaid, shall be delivered or transmitted through the Post, or otherwise, free of charge, by such trustees or other persons, to the said Board, on or before the said twenty-fifth day of March in every year, or such other day as may be fixed and appointed by the said Board as aforesaid,

"And the said Board may from time to time by any order direct that the statement and balance-sheet, or a duplicate or true copy thereof respectively, of the accounts of any charity whose gross annual income exceeds thirty pounds shall be delivered, or sent to the Clerk of the County Court
