AT the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of November, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be to the advantage of the public, if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts, as specified or set forth in the aforesaid Order:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four,—

The parish of Stoke Newington, now in the district of the Storditch County Court of Middlesex, shall be in the district of the County Court of Middlesex, holden at Edmonton:

So much of the district of the County Court of Surrey, holden at Reigate as lies within a line drawn from the point where the railway commonly called "The South-Eastern Railway" crosses the new turnpike-road from Godstone to East Grinstead; thence in a southerly direction along the middle of such road to a lane known as Byes or Hook Stile-lane; thence along the middle of such lane, past the church of the parish of Horne, to a road leading from New Chapel to Smallfield; thence in a westerly direction along the middle of such road to a road leading from Copthorne to Outwood; thence in a northerly direction along the middle of such road to a road or lane known as Harrison's Road; thence in a westerly direction along the middle of such road to the point where such road crosses the boundary of the parish of Nutfield; thence in a north-westerly direction along the southern boundary of the parish of Nutfield to the boundary of the parish of Horley; thence along the eastern boundary of the parish of Horley to the southern boundary of the county of Surrey; thence in an easterly direction along the southern boundary of the said county to the eastern boundary of the parish of Tandridge; thence in a northerly direction along the eastern boundary of the parish of Tandridge to the southern boundary of the parish of Crowhurst; thence in an easterly direction along the southern boundary of the parish of Crowhurst to its eastern boundary; thence in a northerly direction along such eastern boundary to the South Eastern Railway; and thence in a westerly direction along the southern side of such railway to where the said railway crosses the new turnpike-road from Godstone to East Grinstead at the point first described, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at East Grinstead:

The parish of Crawley, now in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at East Grinstead, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Horsham:

The parishes of Billingham and Rudgwick, now in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Petworth, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Horsham:

So much of the parish of Wolstanton, now in the district of the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Hanley, as lies west of the main line of the North Staffordshire Railway, shall be in the district of the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Newcastle-under-Lyme.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of November, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England or Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and that any such Order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered or annulled:

And whereas, it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, should be applied to the Court of Record of the Borough of Northampton:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to order that, within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to the Court of Record of the Borough of Northampton.
