[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of Tuesday last.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of November, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts, in and for which the Court should be holden, should be increased until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and, with the advice aforesaid, to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, among which counties the county of Stafford was included, and the town of Hanley was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county of Stafford for the district in that behalf particularly mentioned in the said Order :

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, and in the sixteenth years of the reign of Her

Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended :

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that a County Court should be holden at Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, for the parishes and places thereunto adjacent, and which parishes and adjoining places are, by virtue of the said Order, now within the district of the County Court holden at the town of Hanley :

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four—

The parish of Trentham, the townships of Longton, Lane End, Fenton Culvert otherwise Great Fenton, Fenton Vivian otherwise Little Fenton, Penkhull, and Boothen, and such part of the township of Shelton as comprises any part of the glebe lands now belonging to the Rector of Stoke-upon-Trent, or any lands which, on the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, were parcel of the glebe lands of the Rector of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, and which parish, townships, and glebe lands are now in the district of the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Hanley, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court, holden at Hanley, and shall form the district of a County Court to be holden at Stoke-upon-Trent ; and a County Court for the purposes of the above-mentioned Acts shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, by the name of the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Stoke-upon-Trent, for the parish of Trentham, the townships of Longton, Lane End, Fenton Culvert otherwise Great Fenton, Fenton Vivian otherwise Little Fenton, Penkhull, and Boothen, and for such part of the township of Shelton as comprises any part of the glebe lands now belonging to the Rector of Stoke-upon-Trent, or any lands which, on the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, were parcel of the glebe lands of the Rector of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid.

C. C. Greville.

Foreign-Office, November 22, 1853.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint the Honourable George Sulyarde Stafford Jerminham, now Secretary to Her Majesty's Embassy at Paris, to be Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Sweden and Norway.
