"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Caversham and Shiplake, in the county of Oxford, and of the parish of Sonning, in the county of Berks, and all in the diocese of Oxford, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said three parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Kidmore End, in the said parish of Caversham, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called "The Consolidated Chapelry of Kidmore End," and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of Kidmore End commences at the south-west corner at a point on the boundary of the parishes of Caversham and Mapledurham, near Shephard's-lane, in the parish of Mapledurham aforesaid, proceeding eastward thence by Farthingworth-green, in the parish of Caversham, and along the road which leads to Grove Farm, as far as the road leading to Tanners Farm, both in the said parish of Caversham, passing for a short distance along this last-mentioned road it takes the fence which divides certain arable inclosures numbered 300 and 301 on the title award map of the said parish of Caversham, and thence along the fence which divides certain inclosures numbered 300 and 299 from numbers 301 and 298, on the title award map aforesaid, till it joins the road leading from Grove Farm to Tanners Farm, in the parish of Caversham aforesaid, crossing this latter road it proceeds eastwardly along a lane till it joins the road leading from Emmer-green to Kidmore End, both in the said parish of Caversham, from which point it follows for a short distance southerly this last-mentioned road towards Emmer-green aforesaid, till it comes to a fence dividing certain inclosures belonging to H. I. Shephard, Esquire, of Rose-hill, in the said parish of Caversham, and numbered 261 and 262 from 260 and 259 respectively on the title award map aforesaid, until it reaches the road leading from Reading to Nettlebed, in the county of Oxford, along which road it proceeds northerly as far as the Bird in hand Public House, at or near which it takes the footpath leading thence to Crowsley Park, in the parish of Shiplake, till it reaches the boundary of the parishes of Sonning and Shiplake, along which it proceeds northward till it reaches the road leading by Wigmore Pond, in the said parish of Shiplake to Blounts-court; in the parish of Rotherfield Peppard, this last-mentioned road it follows till it joins the boundary of the parishes of Shiplake and Rotherfield Peppard, aforesaid, whence it proceeds north-westward along the boundary of the said parish of Shiplake to its junction with the parish of Checkendon, thence south-westerly along the boundary line of the said parishes of Checkendon and Shiplake until they meet the parish of Sonning aforesaid, thence along the boundary of the said parish of Sonning till it joins the parish of Caversham aforesaid, and thence along the boundary of the said parish of Caversham, south-westerly until it reaches the boundary of the parishes of Caversham and Mapledurham, then proceeding south-easterly and southerly along the boundary of those parishes until it reaches Shephard's-lane, at the point where the boundary of the said Consolidated Chapelry of Kidmore End commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green, yellow, and blue.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, and also patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Sonning, of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Caversham), and of the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within your Majesty's Castle of Windsor (patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Shiplake), have been severally obtained to the formation of the said Consolidated Chapelry of Kidmore End, as required by the Act and Section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford has signed and sealed this representation, and the said Dean and Chapter and Dean and Canons have hereto affixed their respective Common Seals.
