

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, the said Dean and Chapter and Dean and Canons as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual Curate to serve the said Church of Saint John, at Kidmore End aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford for the time being.

Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, at Kidmore End, in the parish of Caversham, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual Curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of the diocese of Oxford for the time being; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of December, 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or under and by virtue of all powers or authorities whatever contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the extra-parochial place of Llanerchymedd (locally situate within or forming part for ecclesiastical purposes of the parish of Llanbeulan), of the parish of Amlwch, of the parochial chapelries of Llechcynfarwydd and Rhodygeidio, otherwise Ceidio, and of the parochial chapelry of Gwredog, (being severally locally situate within or forming part of (for ecclesiastical purposes) the parish of Llantrisant,) and all being in the county of Anglesey, and in the diocese of Bangor, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient to unite and consolidate the whole of the said extra-parochial place of Llanerchymedd and part of that of Gwredog, together with contiguous parts of the said parish of Amlwch, and also of the said parochial chapelries of Llechcynfarwydd and Rhodygeidio, otherwise Ceidio, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Llanerchymedd aforesaid, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or under and by virtue of all powers or authorities whatever in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Llanerchymedd,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: The boundary line commences at the north, in the middle of the road leading from Amlwch to Llandyfrydog, and proceeds south-easterly along the middle of that road until it reaches the boundary line separating the parish of Amlwch from the parish of Llandyfrydog, and proceeds in a southerly direction along such boundary until it meets the parish of Coedana; thence proceeding westerly along the road leading from Llanerchymedd to Beaumaris, and south-westerly along the boundary line separating the parish of Coedana from Llechcynfarwydd, aforesaid, until it reaches a detached portion of the parochial chapelry of Gwredog, and continuing along the boundary line separating the said parish of Coedana from the said parochial chapelry of Gwredog until it meets the parish of Llandrygarn; then proceeding northerly along the boundary line separating Gwredog and Llandrygarn until it meets the boundary of Llechcynfarwydd, aforesaid, and proceeding north-easterly and south-easterly along the boundary thereof, as far as the western fence of farm or inclosure No. 36 on the tithe commutation map of Llechcynfarwydd aforesaid; then proceeding northerly along the western fence, and easterly along the northern fence, of such farm or inclosure, and also of the farm or inclosure No. 38, as far as the south-western corner of the farm or inclosure No. 6 on the tithe commutation map of Rhodygeidio, aforesaid, and proceeding north-westerly along such farm or inclosure as far as the road on the north-western side thereof; then proceeding along the middle of that road to the south-western corner of a small collection of cottages and gardens forming part of a farm or inclosure No. 5 on the said map (all which said cottages and gardens are included in the said consolidated chapelry), and proceeding northerly up the western side of such cottages and gardens, and crossing over the road from Trefor to the south-western corner of farm or inclosure No. 16 upon the said map; then proceeding north-easterly along the north-western fences of farms or inclosures Nos. 16, 15, 22, 23, and 26, on the said map, as far as the boundary line of the said parish of Amlwch; then proceeding northerly and north-easterly along the boundary line separating that parish from Rhodygeidio, aforesaid, as far as the northernmost fence separating the farm or inclosure No. 19 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Amlwch, from land belonging to Mr. John Henry Treweek, and proceeding easterly along such fence and also along the northern fence of the farm or inclosure No. 21 on the said map, as far as the road leading to Amlwch, where the boundary line of the said
