PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following, namely:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Deane, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Horwich, in the said parish of Deane, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should consist of the township of Horwich, and should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Horwich,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the district chapelry of Horwich is bounded on or towards the north-east by the township of Halliwell, on or towards the east and south-east, by the township of Heaton, both in the said parish of Deane, on or towards the south by the township of Lostock, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, on or towards the south-west by the township of Blackrod, in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, and on or towards the north-west and north by the townships of Anderton, in the parish of Standish, and of Rivington, in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, which said district chapelry of Horwich is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured blue.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Horwich aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of the said parish of Deane, belong to the minister or incumbent for the time being of Trinity Church, at Horwich aforesaid.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereon annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the said consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, at Horwich, in the parish of Deane, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect
