

a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Cautley, in the said parish of Sedbergh, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should consist of the hamlets of Cautley and Dowbiggin, and should be named 'The District Chapelry of Cautley and Dowbiggin,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the district chapelry of Cautley and Dowbiggin is bounded on the north by the boundary line which separates the county of Westmoreland from the said parish of Sedbergh and the West Riding of the county of York; on the east by the township of Garsdale, in the said parish of Sedbergh; on the south partly by the said township of Garsdale, and partly by the river Clough as far as its junction with the river Rawthey; on the west by the said river Rawthey as far as its junction with Hobdale Beck, and by the said Beck as far as its junction with Grimes Gill, and from such junction by the boundary line separating the hamlet of Howgill and Bland from the hamlet of Cautley and Dowbiggin, as such district and chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of St. Mark, at Cautley aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom shall be equally divided between the vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Sedburgh, and the minister or incumbent of the said church of St. Mark, at Cautley aforesaid, for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, has been obtained thereto as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of St. Mark, at Cautley, in the parish of Sedbergh, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of December, 1853.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that on or about the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, your Majesty's said Commissioners (with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird then Bishop of the diocese of Chester), made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed, that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint George, in the town and parish of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Chester, and also to the consecrated church of Saint Catherine, situate at Scholes, in the said parish of Wigan, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that such proposed districts should be named or called 'The Chapelry District of Saint George,' and 'The Chapelry District of Saint Catherine,' and that the boundaries thereof should be such as were mentioned or described in the said representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners also represented that it appeared to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said churches of Saint George and Saint Catherine, and that the fees to arise therefrom, should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of each of the said churches for the time being.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, your Majesty was graciously pleased by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the assignment of the said districts, and to order that the same should be accordingly made, and also that the recommendations of your Majesty's said Commissioners in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and of the fees arising therefrom, should be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said
