Genova, June 22.

WE have Advice by a Vessel arrived from the Levant, That the Venetian Fleet had taken its Course towards Modon, with a design, as was believed, to besiege that place. The Master of a Vessel come from the Coast of Barbary, reports that the two Brothers Beys have taken Tunis.

Madrid, June 14. The difference about the 500000 Crowns is adjuſted in this manner. The Marquis de los Balbaces declared, the 10th Instant, to the French Ambaſſador, in the Name of his Catholick Maſteſty, That a general Tax of 500000 Crowns ſhall be laid by the Conſulate of Seville upon all the Effects of the Gallions that are now expected home from Porto Velo, of which the French are to pay their Quota. That this Money ſhall be employed for the Reimburſement of thoſe perſons that were taxed in Mexico in the year 1684, for having carried French Merchandizes in 1683. That the Taxations that have not yet been paid ſhall from this time be annulled. That the Spaniards, to whom this Reimburſement is made, ſhall be obliged to repay their Creditors who had allowed on their Accounts for the ſaid Taxations. And that all this ſhall be executed within two Months after the arrival of the Gallions. Which the French Ambaſſador has, in the Name of the King his Maſter, accepted of, and has promiſed that the French Men of War ſhall immediately retire from before Cadix, and all other Ports belonging to his Catholick Maſteſty, and that they ſhall not any where trouble or moleſt the Subjects of this Crown.

Jawarow, June 10. The King of Poland having the 4th Instant, received the Benediction of the Pope's Nuncio, aſſiſted by four Biſhops of this Kingdom, parted from hence the ſame day for Stryes His Maſteſty intended to paſs two or three days there, and then to march at the Head of the Troops that are now encamped near that place to Trembowla, where is appointed the General Rendezvous. The Forces of Lithuania are on their march thither. The Train of Artillery is ready. Magazines have been provided by the Pope's Nuncio at Lemberg and other frontier places; and Bridges are laid over the Nieſter, the King's reſolution being, as it's ſaid, at the ſiſt opening of the Campaigne to paſs that River, and to enter into Moldavia and Valachia. His Maſteſty has ſummoned all the Gentry that hold Lands of the Crown, to repair immediately to the Army, well mounted and armed, on pain of Confiſcation of their Eſtates. It is confirmed that the Turks have abandoned Miſſiſſibos and Barr, carrying away with them their Cannon, Ammunition, and Proviſions; Their intention was to have deſtroyed the Fortifications, but the Mines they made for that purpoſe had not the effect they expected, and ruined only ſome part of the Walls; The King has given Orders for the putting Garriſons into thoſe places, and for repairing the Fortifications. The Tatars who conducted the laſt Convoy to Camnic, made, after their return from thence, an Incurſion as far as Zbaraz, and took in ſight of that place, almoſt all the Horſes of the Regiment of Zbarowski, which were feeding in the Neighbouring Meadows; but a Party of Heydukes having laid an Ambuſh for the Tatars, charged them with that Vigor that they obliged them to quit their Booty, and to retire in great diſorder. The Baſſa who commanded lately in Camnic, being made Seraſquier or General of the Ottoman Forces that are to act againſt this Crown, is gone towards the Danube to aſſemble his Troops. Prince Lubomirski has raiſed a Regiment of Horſe at his own charge, which is now marching to the General Rendezvous.

Vienna, June 30. We have Letters from the Imperial Camp before Buda of the 27th instant, which give an account, that the 21 at night the Enemy made a Sally with 1000 Men, upon the Muſketiers that were poſted in the Lower Town, but that they were beaten back with conſiderable loſs; ſeveral were likewiſe killed and wounded on the ſide of the Imperialiſts. The 26th at Noon they made another Sally towards the Lower Town, 2000 ſtrong, and fell upon the Regiment of Saremberg, but with no better ſucceſs than they had in the former, 30 of the Enemy being killed, beſides wounded; of the Imperialiſts there were 20 killed and wounded. The 27th they made a third Sally, but were again repulſed. The Bavarians, whoſe Attack is againſt the Caſtle, had begun to batter it with their Cannon, and to ſhoot ſmall Bombs into the place: The Brandenburg Troops were not yet arrived in the Camp: They did not paſs the Waag till the 23 instant, from whence they continued their march towards Gran to paſs the Danube there: It is ſaid, that ſo ſoon as they arrive before Buda, the Duke of Loſrain will march with the Cavalry towards the Bridge of Eſſeck, to ſee in what poſture the Enemy are on that ſide. We have adviſe, that the Grand Viſier arrived at Beſgrade toward the end of the laſt Month, but that he had not been many days there when he received an Order from the Grand Signior to return immediatly to Adrianople, which he very readily obeyed, appointing Achmet Baſſa, Seraſquier in Hungary. The news of the Hungarians having taken fourteen Long-Boats which were paſſing down the Danube with the Riches of the chief Inhabitants of Buda, after having defeated 1000 Spahis that guarded them, is confirmed by the laſt Letters from the Camp; which add, that the Booty was ſo great, that the Soldiers divided
