VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled "An Act to prevent the enlisting or engagement of His Majesty's subjects to serve in foreign service, and the fitting out or equipping in His Majesty's dominions vessels for warlike purposes without His Majesty's license;" it is amongst other things enacted, that if any person, within any part of the United Kingdom, or in any part of

His Majesty's dominions beyond the seas, shall, without the leave or license of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors for that purpose first had and obtained, under the sign manual of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, or signified by Order in Council or by Proclamation of His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, equip, furnish, fit out, or arm, or attempt or endeavour to equip, furnish, fit out, or arm, or procure to be equipped, furnished, fitted out or armed, or shall knowingly aid, assist, or be concerned in the equipping, furnishing, fitting out, or arming of any ship or vessel, with intent, or in order that, such ship or vessel shall be employed in the service of any foreign prince, state, or potentate, or of any foreign colony, province, or part of any province or people, or of any province or persons, exercising or assuming to exercise any powers of Government in or over any foreign state, colony, province, or part of any province or people, as a transport or store ship, or with intent to cruise or commit hostilities against any prince, state, or potentate, or against the subjects or citizens of any prince, state, or potentate, or against the persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in any colony, province, or part of any province or country, or against the inhabitants of any foreign colony, province, or part of any province or country, with whom His Majesty shall not then be at war; or shall, within the United Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place belonging or subject to His Majesty, issue or deliver any commission for any ship or vessel, to the intent that such ship or vessel shall be employed as aforesaid, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall, upon conviction thereof, upon any information or indictment, be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the Court in which such offender shall be convicted; and every such ship or vessel, with the tackle, apparel, and furniture, together with all the materials, arms, ammunition, and stores which may belong to, or be on board of, any such ship or vessel, shall be forfeited. And whereas it has been represented to Us, that ships and vessels are being built in several places within the United Kingdom, and are being equipped, furnished, and fitted out, especially with steam machinery, with intent that they shall be employed as aforesaid, without Our royal leave or license for that purpose first had or obtained, or signified as aforesaid: We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, warning all Our subjects against taking part in such proceedings, which We are determined to prevent and repress, and which cannot fail to bring upon the parties engaged in them the punishments which attend the violation of the laws.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and in the seventeenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places, within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, or where any order, made under "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," directing the provisions of that Act, for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases, to be put in

CHARITY COMMISSION.

THE Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, considering that the churchwardens of very many parishes are ex officio trustees of charities therein, and that as to a large proportion of such charities, it has been customary to make up yearly accounts thereof, as between the retiring churchwardens and their successors or otherwise, to the Feast of Easter, or to some other early period in each year, and having received numerous representations that the duty of making up other yearly accounts of the same charities to any different day may be attended with unnecessary inconvenience to the trustees and expence to the charities, do order, that it shall be lawful for the trustees of any parochial charity of which the churchwardens are ex officio trustees, whether solely or otherwise, in lieu of making up on or before the 25th day of March in every year, the statements and balance sheet required by the 61st section of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," of the income and revenues and receipts and expenditure thereof for the year ending on the preceding 31st day of December, to make up on or before the 31st day of May in every year, like statements and a like balance sheet of the income and revenues, and receipts and expenditure of such charity to whatever earlier time of the year it has been customary in the same parish to make up and balance the yearly accounts thereof, so nevertheless that every such statement and balance sheet shall be certified in the manner directed by the said Act, and shall be audited in the cases and in the manner thereby prescribed, and that the same or a duplicate thereof, shall also on or before the same 31st day of May, be delivered or sent to the Clerk of the County Court or Clerk of the Peace, as the case may require, and also to this Board in the manner required by said Act; provided that it shall be lawful for this Board to revoke or from time to time to vary this order as to all or any of the charities affected thereby as they may think necessary or expedient.—Dated this 7th day of March, 1854.
