*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 9, 1854.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a translation of a Sardinian Law (a copy of which is hereunto subjoined) repealing all duties on the exportation and importation of all kinds of grain, and farinaceous food.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

THE Senate and Chamber of Deputies have adopted, and we have ordained, and do ordain, as follows:

Art. 1. The modifications in the customs duties with regard to grains, sanctioned by the Royal Decrees of the 6th and 27th October, 1853, are approved of.

Art. 2. All duties, differential and others, on the importation, exportation, and bonding of the following articles, are abolished:

Wheat, mixture (of wheat, rye, and pulse), maize, rye, rice, rice seed, beans, flour, French beans, pulse, barley, Turkish wheat, lentils, lupins, millet, peas, spelt, vetches, split and matted grains and legumes, flour of grain, chestnuts and roots, fecula of manioc and of potatoes, bread, semola, macaroni stuffs, bran, and the residue of ground corns.

Art. 3. Communes cannot in future impose any duties on the consumption and manufacture of the articles aforesaid.

Art. 4. From the 1st of April, 1854, all duties on the consumption and manufacture of the aforesaid articles, already imposed by communes, shall cease.

The President of the Council of Ministers, the Secretary of State for Finances, Agriculture, and Commerce, is charged with the execution of the present Law, which shall be registered at the "Controllo Generale," as published and inserted in the Government Acts.

Given at Turin, February 16th, 1854.
