DRAFT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas by our Proclamation, given at our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, on nineteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, rates were fixed at which certain gold coins of the United States of North America should circulate and be received in payment in our West India Colonies, and whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of such Proclamation to other gold coins of the said United States not specified in the same, and also to extend the provisions thereof, as well as of this our Proclamation, to our province of British Guiana.

Now, therefore, We, by the advice of our Privy Council, have thought fit to declare and ordain, and, by the advice aforesaid, We do hereby declare and ordain that the rate fixed by our said Proclamation for the gold coin of the said United States, called the eagle, shall apply proportionately to the double eagle or other multiple or multiples of the eagle; and, further, that the provisions of our said Proclamation, and of this our Proclamation, shall extend to our province of British Guiana, so that in all payments to be made in our said province, tender of payment in the gold coins of the said United States, or either of them, at the rates specified, shall be deemed and taken to be a lawful tender, in the same manner as if such tender had been made in the current coin of our United Kingdom.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of March, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of the Trinity House, Deptford Strond, to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," it was enacted that certain rates and prices should be paid by the owners, masters, or agents of vessels passing and repassing in the River Thames, for ballast supplied to them by the Corporation of the Trinity House;

And whereas the said Trinity House have, under the said recited Act, been in the habit of supplying ballast in the manner, and on the terms therein provided, but were not under the said recited Act in the habit of placing the same on board vessels, or of unloading the same therefrom;

And whereas by the fourteenth section of the "Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," it was provided that if, in addition to the duties theretofore performed, in consideration of the said ballastage rates received under the said recited Act, the Trinity House, at the request or with the consent of the owners or masters of, or agents for, any ships, should undertake to place ballast on board thereof, or to unload ballast therefrom, they should be entitled to charge for such additional duties such reasonable additional charge per ton for ballast so placed on board, or unladen, as Her Majesty, by Order in Council, might from time to time approve;

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, Her Majesty, acting in pursuance of the said fourteenth section of the "Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," was pleased to approve of certain rates specified in the said Order, as rates which might be properly established and paid to the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House, by the owners or masters of, or agents for, any ships, who might be desirous that the Trinity House should undertake to place ballast on board, or unload it from such ships, in addition to the rates already payable for placing the ballast alongside the same;

And whereas the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House have submitted to Her Majesty that the said scale of rates fixed by the said recited Order may, so far as respects the delivery of ballast on board such ships as therein mentioned, be reduced, and that the following rates may be substituted in lieu thereof, viz.:

For vessels having ports, 3d. (three pence) for every ton of ballast placed on board;

For vessels not having ports, 5½d. (five pence and one half-penny) for every ton of ballast placed on board;

such rates to be in addition to the rates now payable for placing the ballast alongside the same;

And whereas such reduced scale of rates appears to be proper and reasonable;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of the said scale of rates so submitted as aforesaid, in lieu of the rates fixed for the same service by the said recited Order in Council.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of March, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the “ Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, so far as they relate to Episcopal Dioceses, Revenues, and Patronage,” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled ‘ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, so far as they relate to Episcopal Dioceses, Revenues, and Patronage,’ and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled ‘ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,’ and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled ‘ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Exeter for certain estates belonging to his see.

“ Whereas it was, by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangement might from time to time be made with the consent in writing, under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

“ And whereas the right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, is seised, in right of his see, of the manors or lordships, lands, and hereditaments described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the whole or the greater part of which are comprised in certain leases which are enumerated in the second schedule hereunto annexed.

“ And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said manors, lands, and hereditaments should be transferred from the said see of Exeter to us, and that an annual money payment to the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors, should forthwith be substituted for the same.

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his corporate seal, that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly gazetted Order, the manors or lordships, lands, and hereditaments so described or referred to in the said schedules hereunto annexed (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), and all the estate, right, title, and interest therein and thereto of the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of his successors, bishops of Exeter, shall be, and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop, and his successors, bishops of Exeter, and shall be absolutely vested in us (subject to any legally subsisting leases or grants thereof), as from the sixth day of May now last past for the purposes of the said Acts.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of, and for such conveyance and transfer, and in substitution for the said manors or lordships, lands, and hereditaments, there shall be paid by us to the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors, bishops of Exeter, the annual sum of one thousand one hundred and ten pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, and that the first of such payments shall be considered to have accrued due on the sixth day of November now last past, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the sixth day of May now next ensuing.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of March, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Salop, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as in that case to raise the average annual income thereof, to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licenses for non residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and duly gazetted, it was provided that the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds should be paid by us to the Archdeacon of Salop, for the time being.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from other sources, amounted to fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that such average annual income did not exceed the sum of thirty-four pounds.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that in addition to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in the said first recited Order mentioned, there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Act mentioned, to the Archdeacon of Salop, in the diocese of Lichfield, for the time being, the further annual sum of sixteen pounds; and that a rateable payment from the date of his appointment to the first day of January now last past, shall be forthwith made to the Venerable John Allen, the present holder of the said archdeaconry, and that every future payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate from the bishop that the archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the Diocese of Lichfield, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Grantham Australis, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

" And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Grantham Australis (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us under or by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof :

" And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments ; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Grantham Australis, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.
